The Hawaiian Troubadours, coming to the Stayton Theatre May 18th, was one of the big musical attractions at the San Francisco Exposition. They give a first-class entertainment, playing native Hawaiian music as well as that of other countries, and use various kinds of instruments. Manager Rizzo is to be congratulated on securing this attraction, as shows of this class seldom visit towns of this size.

Died

Samuel Lake was born in Columbia county, Penn., in 1830 and died May 15, 1916, aged 86 years, two months and 13 days. He was one of 12 children. He came to Oregon by ox team in 1852, and was married to Miss Matilda Duffield in Salem, Oct. 15, 1865. They quietly celebrated their golden wedding last October at the home place east of town where they have lived for many years.

He is survived by his wife and five children, Grant, of John, Calif., Wm. of Stayton, Mrs. Susan Caplinger, of Salem, Mrs. Ethel Malone, of Stayton, and Joseph, of San Francisco. The youngest son, Beecher, dying eight years ago; also four grandsons and one brother, John R. Lake, of Stayton. He had been a member of the M. E. church for 49 years and a Mason for 46 years. He was also an Indian war veteran.

Mr. Lake had been in poor health for a number of years, and was tenderly cared for by a devoted wife and children. He was a good neighbor, friend, husband and father, and although death was to him a welcome release from years of suffering, many will mourn his passing, and the sympathy of hosts of friends will go out to the sorrowing wife and children.

Funeral services were conducted at the home this (Wednesday) afternoon by Rev. Lockhart, pastor of the M. E. church. Interment was made in the Stayton cemetery, the Masonic fraternity conducting the services at the grave.

Henry Louis Schnackenberg of Lyons, died Monday in a sanitarium in Portland where he went several weeks ago for medical treatment. The cause of his death was tuberculosis.

Mr. Schnackenberg was a native of Minnesota, and came to Oregon when a child. He leaves a wife and five children, two sons and two daughters at home and one married daughter, Mrs. Stone. He was 46 years of age and a member of the Odd Fellows and the Artisans, who took part in the funeral services.

The funeral was held this morning, a large number from here attending. Mrs. Schnackenberg is a niece of A. D. Gardner and Mrs. S. J. Crabtree and has other relatives in Stayton.

The deceased was a man well liked by all who knew him and had the confidence and respect of his neighbors and a high standing in his community. His death will leave a vacancy in the home that cannot be filled and bring sadness to the hearts of friends, and the sympathy of all their acquaintances will be with the wife and children in the loss of a loved husband and father.
