ool Meeting Largely Attended

haps the largest crowd ever assembled at a school election in Stayton, gathered in the High Auditorium Monday afternoon.

The meeting was called for the purpose of electing one director and a clerk. E. M. Olmsted, the out-going director, was re-elected, and G. M. Munkers was elected clerk in the absence of Warren Richardson.

For director Geo. Keech and D. Gardner were nominated. Gardner received 119 votes, Keech 43.

Clerk J. M. Ringo received 119 votes and Warren Richardson 43.

A question of levying a special tax of eleven mills was voted on and defeated by only three votes.

Had only legal votes been counted, this proposition would have been carried. Several votes were cast by people who lacked the necessary property qualification, but they had a right to vote in being parents of children in school age.

A motion was then placed before the house to reduce the levy for 10 mills. This motion carried. The 10 mill levy was voted upon and carried by a majority.

The meeting then adjourned. A report of the clerk showed there are 282 pupils, 56 of whom are above the 8th grade. The library contains 756 books, purchased the past year.

am Mines Better

Peery came down from his own mines a few days ago, reports a new quartz vein under the point where they start their tunnel. The ore obtained from this vein, he thinks, is a mine within itself, and will more than pay for development.

It is the purpose to put a force of seven men at work at once in driving the tunnel. A saw mill will soon be erected to saw all timber and lumber needed for the development of the mine.

Mr. Peery reports that the Black Eagle mine has been sold for $100,000. The new owner says that enough valuable ore has been placed in the dump, to have paid all the debts and development expenses of the company.

Mr. Peery reports that mining activity is rapidly increasing in the district. He expects the Little North Fork mining district to become one of the big things of the coast.—Scio Tribune.

Good Ball Game

The Stayton team was defeated Sunday in a lively game on the home grounds by Mill City with a score of 3 to 4. The local fans rooted their best, but the home boys' mascot was out of commission.

The Stayton team plays Mill City at the mill town on the 4th and a hot game is expected.

The local merchant pays his taxes in this town and assists in defraying the community expenses. He is doing his part toward building up your home. The mail order man pays no taxes here, and is doing more than his share towards destroying the community. Who are you supporting?

Beauchamp's

Drug Store has received a nice new line of Syringes—good goods for little money. If you are wanting goods of this kind it will pay you to look them over.

Alois Bell, while running a wood saw near Sublimity, struck his arm against the saw, cutting a large gash. Dr. Beauchamp was called and placed nine stitches in the wound.

Clarence Hill Passes

Tuesday morning, at the family home in this city, occurred the death of Clarence Hill, from hemorrhage due to tuberculosis.

Mr. Hill had been ailing for some time, and went to Arizona with the hope of being benefited, but not securing the desired results, returned home. He had not been confined to his bed at all, and Friday last was down town. Tuesday he arose and dressed himself, but was soon taken with the hemorrhage that quickly resulted in death.

Clarence E., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hill, was born in Phillips county, Kansas, Nov. 27, 1878, coming with his parents to Oregon in 1883, where he has since resided. He was of a quiet disposition, and well liked by those who knew him.

Besides his parents he leaves to mourn his death two sisters, Miss Gladys Hill and Mrs. J. F. Potter, of Mill City, and four brothers, Lafe, Ellis, and Clyde, of Salem, and D. B., of Mill City, all of whom were present at the funeral. Also a son eight years of age. Twelve years ago Tuesday, Millard, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Hill, who was drowned in the Willamette river at Salem, was buried in the cemetery here.

The funeral service was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by R. L. Putnam, pastor of the Christian church.

The sympathy of their many friends is extended to the sorrowing relatives.

Married

This morning, at the Catholic church in Sublimity, occurred the marriage of Miss Mary Boedigheimer to Wm. Kerber, Rev. Fr. Lajack officiating.

The bride is a popular and charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Boedigheimer and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Kerber, and is an energetic and enterprising young man.

The young people have many friends in Stayton and vicinity who will join the Standard in wishing for them a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

They will make their home in the Heiderer house, near Mrs. Allie Brewer's.

Methodist Church

"The President's Call to Arms Against Mexico, or Mobilization of the National Guard: Some Lessons Therefrom" will be the topic taken by the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday evening at eight o'clock. The topic announced last Sunday is postponed a week.

In the morning the 11 o'clock service will be held in the Masonic grove under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society and will be followed by a basket dinner to which all members and friends are expected to bring well filled baskets. If the weather is not fine the service and dinner will be held in the church. The Sunday school will meet in the church at the usual hour. The public cordially invited. E. B. Lockhart, Pastor.

Clean Teeth

Mean healthy mouths with breath pure and sweet. Give good digestion from thorough mastication. Insure good looks and perfect health. We have the things to keep the teeth clean. Tooth brushes, tooth pastes and powder, tooth washes and peroxide. Beauchamps Drug Store.

Hon. C. L. Hawley, of McCoy, visited several days last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Beauchamp. Sunday Mrs. Hawley and children arrived. They returned home that evening, accompanied by Mr. Hawley's mother.

Much criticism has been made about the Texas militiamen refusing to cross the border into Mexico. Was it not the fainting fear of being inoculated with the anti-typhoid serum? Did not Frank James once faint in a dentist's chair in Kansas City?

Paul V. Maris, State county agent leader, has been scheduled by the O. A. C. Extension Service for a Fourth of July address before the farmers and other citizens of Stayton. Mr. Maris was invited to discuss the subject of co-operation and the Farmers' Union and will consider these questions in the way of general interest, showing how the co-operation of farmers can be made a more important and helpful factor in the development of progressive and successful agriculture in the Willamette valley.

Veterans in State Encampment

Last week twelve hundred veterans, composed of four veterans' organizations, met at Eugene for their annual encampment, and a royal good time was had. The Grand Army of the Republic, the Spanish-American war veterans, Ladies of the G. A. R., and the Women's Relief Corps participated. The encampment opened with a parade at noon, and Flag day was observed in a most appropriate manner.

Jitney competition is costing the company $1500 a day, taken from the cream of the company's business. Light and power competition is taking the cream of that classification of the company's service out of the downtown district. Twenty cents out of every dollar of gross revenue earned by the company is paid to the city and county governments for bridge tolls, street improvement assessments and similar charges.

A bill is being initiated to exempt factory machinery, made-up stock and raw material on hand from taxation. The measure is entitled "an act to encourage manufacturing and help build up manufacturing industries in Oregon, by exempting the above from the burden of taxation."

Oregon City—Hawley Paper mills add another large building and double payroll.

Loved Another Man's Wife. Loving another man's wife, is generally considered a dangerous proposition, at least one fellow found this to be true, when the irate husband took a shot at the intruder the other day in the hills near Orchard Valley, in the vicinity of Canyonville. Unhappily, no blood was shed, but its safe to say the intruder will make no more love visits to the home during the absence of the husband.
