E. D. ALEXANDER, Editor.

Entered as second-class matter March 29, 1915, at the post-office at Stayton, Ore., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Over at Salem, the Business Men's League are publishing a list of accounts due local merchants, said accounts being for sale. Whether this is the proper method to pursue, is a question.

In the wreck of the steamer Bear, off the Oregon coast near Eureka, in which several lives were lost last Thursday, is but nothingness as we turn our mind to the awful carnage on land and sea that happens every day in the countries across the pond.

A New Orleans paper is authority for the following: An Arkansas man who had a constantly ailing wife, permitted her one day to catch him kissing the maid. The cure was instantaneous. The wife arose in a jiffy, forgot her numerous ailments and has not needed the services of a maid since the accident.

The old sentiment that "What was good enough for me when I was a boy is good enough for the children today," certainly should not be allowed to prevail. Certainly no father and no mother who takes a pride and an interest in the children, wants to see them endure the hardships that the parents endured. Moveover, what fitted a man to battle with life in this new west a generation ago, will not fit a man to battle with life in days ahead of us. Either the children will have to be better equipped or they are going to fail sadly.—Geryis Star.
