STAYTON, MARION COUNTY, OREGON, JULY 5, 1916.

NO. 15.

THE FOURTH on Celebrates Else- where

Stayton was practically deserted yesterday. There were about 100 people left in town to make a brave attempt to keep a fire had one started. In every town about that had Stayton representatives. Sublimity and Mill City drew the larger crowds. At the business places in the town except Hendershotts, Rock's bakery were closed after 10 o'clock but enough small boys were on the job to keep the homes awake. At Sublimity there was the usual crowd. W. H. Downer delivered the address, which was spoken of. The sports were numerous, interesting and good, and the dance at night closed the festivities was attended. Sublimity added to her list of successful cities. Stayton entertained the largest crowd ever there on the 4th. Athletic sports were many, and the good prizes were hung on the ball game was between Stayton and Mill City, and was won by the former team by a score of 6 to 3. A number from town attended the picnic at Dively's at West Stayton. The largest number of the "Red" has been shown at the theatre. This is one of the movie serials Manager has shown. "The Iron" and "The Broken Coin" with good and attracting audiences. The special feature plays he is showing Saturday nights are produced by some of the greatest actors in the world. Next Saturday night the public will have a chance to see the eminent actor, E. H. Sothern. To see Sothern in real life one would have to visit a large city and pay anywhere from $1 up. Here we can see him in the movies for ten cents.

C. Ullom, charged with selling personal property on which a mortgage had been given, and arrested in Portland on Tuesday, was yesterday admitted to bail in the sum of $250, which he furnished. Ullom was arraigned before the circuit court and pleaded not guilty to the charge. It is alleged in the indictment that on Oct. 11, 1914, Ullom sold a lunch counter and six stools, valued at about $9, and on which there was held a mortgage. — Salem Statesman.

The recent rains have caused very bad roads in many localities. The road from Aumsville to the town of Turner is in very bad condition and if work is not done upon it soon, with the prospects of more rain, it will become impassable to the automobile traveling public.

Mr. and M. J. Crabtree are pleased over the arrival of a son at their home Friday, June 30th. He has been named James Ellsworth. Dr. Beauchamp attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siegmund and Mrs. E. G. Siegmund, of Fern Ridge, were in town Monday.

Several of the members of the Masonic fraternity attended the funeral of Nathan W. Silver, at Turner, Thursday. He was an old resident of that neighborhood.

Perfect Pictures

There is a pleasure in owning a good Kodak, and an added pleasure in taking beautiful pictures. Kodak is the common-law trade mark of the Eastman Kodak Co. If a dealer tries to sell you a camera or films not of Eastman manufacture under the Kodak name, you can be sure he is trying to substitute an inferior article on the Kodak reputation. If it isn't an Eastman, it isn't a Kodak. Beauchamps drug store for Kodaks and Kodak supplies.

The Stayton Mutual Telephone Co. has received a carload of telephone poles, and considerable needed repair work is being done on the lines. Many poles about town are badly decayed, some being rotted entirely off at the ground and held in place by the wires. There has been no systematic repair work done on the line since it was built, and Manager Henry Smith with a crew of helpers will put it good condition again.

Mrs. J. H. Wilbur very pleasantly entertained the Birthday club in her handsome new home Friday. Novel favors were presented and a delicious luncheon served, covers being laid for twelve. The rooms and tables were decorated with red roses. The occasion is pronounced an enjoyable one.

The balloon that was seen soaring high in the heavens last evening was thought by many to have been one that escaped from some celebration event in a nearby town. It remained aloft for some time, finally caught fire, and came to earth, presenting a beautiful sight to the many on-lookers.

F. J. Ficklin, the new laundryman, with his wife and little daughter, have arrived in town and will occupy the Cornish cottage near J. M. Ringo's. Mr. Ficklin expects to have the laundry in operation by the first of next week.

San Tox Blackberry Cordial an aromatic cordial for the treatment of diarrhea, summer complaint, cramps, etc.—Sloper's.

Thousands of dollars have been lost by grower and canneries on account of recent rains practically making the cherries unfit for cannery purposes.

Readers of the Standard should not overlook the adv. of Buren & Hamilton, of Salem, on another page. The dissolution sale this firm is now conducting offers an opportunity to the public to secure some rare bargains in house furnishings.

Nairn A. Siegmund came up from Astoria Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Siegmund, of Fern Ridge, and other relatives and friends.

Wm. Cladek, wife and baby, of Lebanon, are visiting at Lee Tate's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pettit, from north of town, were visiting in town Monday.
