GERMAN U-BOAT PAYS BRIEF VISIT

Newport, R. I.-Seventeen days from Wilhelmshafen, the imperial German submarine U-53 dropped anchor in Newport harbor Saturday. As she came and went she flew the black Support the home industry, the and white colors of the German navy, home enterprise and the home a gun was mounted on the forward merchant as the golden rule of deck and another aft, while eight torpedoes plainly were visible under the forward deck.

Lieutenant Captain Hans Rose, who hung up a new world's record in bringdaughter, Miss Dora, of Mt. An- ing an armed submarine in battle array across the Atlantic, said that he and N. J. Gehlen homes the first had simply called at Newport to mail f preparing choice of the week. Miss Theo Mat- a letter to Count von Bernstorff. He requested neither provisions nor fuel. Almost before the officers of the American fleet of warships through which the stranger had nosed her way had recovered from their astonishment, the undersea fighter had delivered a message for the German ambassador and, weighing anchor, turned toward Brenton's Reef lightship and disappeared beneath the waves just inside the three-mile limit.

RUSSIAN ARMIES WIN

mies on three fronts have been engaged in mighty conflict with the armies of the central allies and, according to war office reports, in each case the battle has turned in favor of the Czar's troops.

The most furious fighting is reported from the fronts in Galicia and in the Carpathians, where German troops have made repeated counter attacks in an attempt to regain thy recently won positions of the Russians. Four consecutive times the power of the Teutonic attack was launched against the Russian lines on the Ceniuvka and Zlota rivers, in Galicia, and as often the Russians thrust back the powerful attacks, inflicting heavy house to cost between $70,000 and losses on the Germans, the Russian $80,000. war department announced.
