

- Gehlen's Store -

Just Received a Full Line of Alligator Brand Slickers in the Long and Short lengths also Pants. This Coat is guaranteed to be Absolutely Waterproof and will not Crack or Stick.

We also Carry a Complete Line of MEN'S AND LADIES' RUBBERS at the RIGHT PRICE.

We are in the Market for all kinds of Produce, such as Eggs, Butter and Poultry.

CHAS. GEHLEN

STAYTON ORE.

Local Items

Aloys Kronberg, of Mt. Angel, was a Stayton visitor Sunday.

Miss Marshall spent the week end with her people in Gervais.

Eggs 50c per doz in trade at Klecker's.

W. Richardson is on the sick list.

Christmas Toys of all kinds of the 5-10-15-25c store.

Mrs. Carlson of Aumsville was trading in Stayton Tuesday.

Good Oak Posts for sale. 15 cents each. Chas. Gehlen.

Wm. English of Coon Hollow was trading in town Tuesday.

A. P. Speer has decided to discontinue the West Stayton store.

Buckwheat

If you want pure buckwheat cakes, such as "mother used to make" buy your buckwheat from the Eureka Flouring Mills.

We have received the new crop walnuts and have them on sale. Hendershott's.

P. C. Speer of West Stayton, was transacting business in our city Monday.

Charles Loose of West Stayton was transacting business in town

Tuesday.

If you want pure, sanitary milk or cream call at Brewer's Dairy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Follis,

Mrs. Alexander. Mrs. Dr. Kor-inek and Mrs. Joe Peery visited Salem Monday in the Follis auto.

J. W. Studebaker returned to Portland last Saturday, after a few days visit with his sister, Mrs. C. E. Daugherty.

Bring your cider apples to the cider mill at Sublimity. Grind every day at 2c per gallon.

Sweet cider for sale at 15 cents per gallon. Peter Welter.

4t

Hood River has a candy and glace factory.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Sometimes brings dyspepsia, be prepared to enjoy your dinner without fear by having a box of Kodol dyspepsia tablets on hand.

50c and $1.00 at Sloper's.

The Gem Confectionery

Is the Place to Buy

Fruits and Nuts

WE SERVE

Hot Beef Tea

Hot Chocolate

Hot Lemonade

Chinese Noodles

on short Notice

J. A. HENDERSHOTT.

N. J. Ware of Idaho, is visiting his brother and mother here this week.

It is reported that the barber at Sublimity, has gone to Germany to get him a better half.

Buckwheat flour, the kind that makes the best flap jacks sold by Spaniol's Eureka Flouring Mills.

C. A. Luthy and family spent Sunday with the family of E. G.

Siegmund at Fern Ridge.

John Goodconecht and family, was visiting Mr. Goodconechts sister, Mrs. C. A. Luthy, last Friday.

Joe Fisher has improved his residence property by building a cement walk from the street to the house. E. C. Lau did the work.

Fred Bailey, who was a resident of this place a number of years, has returned for a visit with friends and relatives. He has been in Idaho, since leaving here.

Sloper's Cold Tablets

These tablets are made from our own private formula, so we know we can guarantee them and we do. Sloper's Drug Store.

The Odd Fellows Lodge at Mehama has decided to sell their property in that place and purchase new property in Lyons.

The city council at their meeting Monday night ordered a concrete cross walk put down from the Farmers & Merchants Bank to the Trotter corner.

Jack Waltemeyer has leased the Star theatre for one year and will have complete control of same and guarantees his patrons good, clean wholesome amusement.

Friday Night

At the Skating Rink in the opera house will be devoted to ladies and ladies with their escorts.

Careful attention given to lady beginners.

Bend is shipping potatoes east.

School Notes

The second division of the Literary society gave their program last Friday afternoon. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all especially the German song "Heidenroslein," sang by Margaret Schaefer and Marguerite Ryan.

Miss Sina Mize, who is a cousin of Miss Olive Bassett and is visiting at the Charles Clark home, spent Tuesday afternoon at the High School.

Most of the teachers either went to their homes to spend Thanksgiving or are away visiting friends and relatives.

L. D. Mars from Gervais, Ore., was visiting at the school the first of the week.

The composition for the 7th and 8th grades this week were all Thanksgiving subjects.

The eighth class is preparing a book for Ralph Tate, in which he is to keep an account of events during his absence. One page is set aside for each week and it is headed with good quotations and drawing. The drawing being supervised by Mr. Hoffer.

The Singing Club had its second meeting at the school house Monday night.

Miss Marshall visited with home folks in Gervais last Saturday and Sunday.

The story of Patsy, by Kate Douglas Wiggin is being read in Miss Hollister's room.

A short Thanksgiving program was given in Miss Marshall's room Wednesday afternoon.

Floyd Hamman and Harlin Wedde were absent from Miss Hollister's room a few days on account of sickness.

The attendance in Mrs. Pratt's room has not been the best for the past week on account of a large number having colds.

The Teachers Training Class has been observing in the primary room this week and last week. The subjects observed by them were Primary work and Phonics, first grade number work and a dramatized story. They have also been taking observation in the various other classes and have received valuable information concerning many subjects.

Thanksgiving vacation has come, much to the satisfaction of all the pupils, who always eagerly await a holiday.

Every Word

Every statement, made in a Beauchamp's Drug Store advertisement must ring true, for in no other way may we expect to gain and retain the confidence of the public.

Birthday Club Meets

The Birthday Club was pleasantly entertained at the G. L.
Brown home on Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. J. P. Wilbur, Vice Pres., Mrs. E. D. Alexander, Sec-Treasurer, Mrs. G. L. Brown.
Following the business session the ladies passed the time away making Christmas presents until they were invited into the dining room where an excellent lunch awaited them. The table was tastily decorated with a huge pumpkin and other symbols of Thanksgiving and each guest was provided with a white Puritan collar and cap.

Agnes Highberger, accompanyed by her father, started for Grants Pass, Wednesday. Agnes intends to spend the winter there for a climatic change.
She is not very strong.

L. A. Thomas shipped another car load of hogs to Portland on Monday from West Stayton.

A Farmers Union has been formed at West Stayton and they expect to build a large warehouse there in the near future.

Mrs. J. R. Miller entertained a party of friends and relatives at dinner on Thursday.

A Surprise Birthday Party

A large party of friends and well wishers of Mr. and Mrs. L.
A. Thomas congregated at the store of D. M. Doll Monday evening and marched in a body to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas completely surprising them.
The occasion of all the merriment was the birthday of Mrs.
Thomas.

The evening and a share of the morning was pleasantly spent in playing cards and pulling taffy.
Those present report an enjoyable time and as they bid the host and hostess good bye, wished them many more pleasant and happy birthdays.

There were present Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fisher and son Norval Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Luthy and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Messler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
Jacob Spaniol, Mr. and Mrs. D.
M. Doll and the Misses Ina Harold Ella Williams and Marie Henkel.

Have You Tried

Lang's Mineral Water for rheumatism, get it at Sloper's.

Clarence and Leona Forette were among those from out of town who attended the Laux-Senz wedding.

At the road meeting held at West Stayton on Monday a 3 mill tax was voted. This is good news as all residents of this section are anxious to have their roads in first class shape. Leonard Walker is supervisor of the West Stayton District.

Dr. Eaton carries the latest in Optical goods.

Verle Powelson of Corvallis is spending the week with his mother Mrs. C. E. Daugherty.

Eggs 50c per dozen in trade at Klecker's.

Donald Mars of Gervais, was a Stayton visitor from Sunday until Tuesday.

The best buckwheat flour is manufactured by the Eureka Flouring Mills, Geo. Spaniol, proprietor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp Miss Poley and Mr. Davis were among the fans from here who attended the O. A. C.—Oregon football game at Corvallis.

Miss Vida Young, Wilda Counts from Corvallis, Roy E. Samuels, and H. Strong, from Eugene all surprised Miss Young's parents Sunday afternoon by coming in on them to spend Thanksgiving.

If you have land to clear it will pay you to read carefully the advertisement of Hauser Bros., elsewhere in this issue.

James Leffler and wife and E.
H. Titus and mother attended the funeral of Mr. Wm. Ford at Falls City, one day last week.
Mr. Ford was an uncle of Mrs.
Leffler.

"The Girl and The Game," in addition to the regular show at the Star Theatre Saturday night, is a two reel serial worth seeing.

Mrs. Arthur Ferguson, of Canyon City, Oregon, is here for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Crabtree and other relatives and friends.

The Blain Clothing Co., of Albany, Ore., have a money saving story in their ad in this issue, that will be of interest to you.
Read it.

Notice

The Brode Club which was to have met Wednesday evening Nov. 29, at Mrs. Everette Crab-tree's will meet at the same place Wednesday evening Dec. 6.

In the offshore lumber trade, Washington and Oregon tide water mills shipped 34,212,787 feet of lumber during the month of October.

Tillamook—Several carloads of Tillamook cheese are being shipped to the East this week.
First time in history of the Oregon industry that cheese has been sent from here to the Eastern states.

Opening Star Theatre

—UNDER MANAGEMENT OF—

Jack Waltemeyer

Saturday Dec. 2nd

Scio Dramatic Club

—IN—

"Pierre of The Plains"

in Addition

Two Reel Serial

"The Girl and The Game"

Price:— Children 15cts. Adults 35cts.

Methodist Church

Sunday night at the 7:30 service the pastor will give discoureof the fisherman to the huntsman by Izaak Walton the Angler; the number omitted from the program last Sunday night, and will also read what he calls the masterpiece of American poetry.
These will be presented in place of the usual sermon.

At the morning service he will preach on "The Steps of A Good Man." Sunday School and Epworth league at 11 and 6:30 respectively. Welcome to all.

The newly elected officers of the Epworth league are: President, Mrs. Lilly; first vice, Mrs.
Starr; second vice, Mrs. Mabel Mack; third vice, Mrs. Pancoast; fourth vice, Mrs. Foster; sec-

Dr. Eaton gave a short address also as part of vice. There was a audience out regardin inclement weather. M Poley, Mrs. J. P. Wilbur, H. Lilly, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. Cain were taking part.

Frank F. Foster held last week with the result number of friends called house in the form of a party and after some freshments prepared by guests and a neat pres-address by Mrs. Horan long time Stayton resi-presented with two vol-token of the esteem in is held. Mr. Foster ex-earnest appreciation of thoughtfulness of his friends.

DOLLS CASH STORE

We Have on Hand a Splendid Line of Fancy Ribbons

Table Runners, Laundry bags, Fancy guest Towels

Bath Towels of all kinds, Crochet Thread, Un-

Toweling for Fancy Work. Terry Cloth for Co-ing Pockets, Towels and Wash Cloths.

Come-see Them We are Glad to Show Them to You

Produce Wanted-We Pay High Prices

DOLLS CASH STORE

treas, Verd Hamman.
Wordsworth, Howells, Proctor, and other literary lights shone in the program, at the Methodist church Sunday night when a Thanksgiving service was held.
W. W. Elder opened the program by reading the Thanksgiving proclamation of President Wilson.
The minister hereby fully invites any of the dates for city offices, or those for the position of to take five or more each, at the evening service on the conduct of the aspired to.

Clear Your Land with Trojan Powder

Trojan will not FREEZE and therefore it requires NO THAWING

Trojan contains no Nitroglycerine and is SAFEST POWDER to stock and use

Trojan gives off NO FUMES that will A HEADACHE so common with other pow-

Trojan Powder is Handled in Carload quantities SALEM - ALBANY - EUGENE

Each Magazine is taken care of by Hauser Bros. have stores at all these three Points

Price list and booklet free upon request

HAUSER BROS.
SPORTING GOODS.
SALEM - ALBANY - EUGENE, ORE.