

Gehlen's Store

Come in and see our Bargain table of Groceries

13 lbs sugar	$1.00
6 1-2 " "	50c
3 1-4 " "	25c

Just received a new line of Hats and Caps

Remember—we deliver twice daily

CHAS. GEHLEN

STAYTON ORE.

Local Items

Good Oak Posts for sale—15 cents each. Chas. Gehlen.

John Huber, was a Stayton visitor Saturday.

John Smith, of Silverton was in town yesterday.

Milk and cream for sale at the Bakery.

Mr. Huffman of Weiser Idaho is visiting Joe Kearns.

Geo. A. Schaefer of Salem was a Stayton visitor Monday.

Mrs. Lilly went to Corvallis last Friday and returned Sunday.

Ben Darby and wife of Linn County were Stayton visitors Tuesday.

A. A. McKenzie of Linn county was trading in Stayton Tuesday.

If you want pure, sanitary milk or cream call Brewer's Dairy.

Mrs. Byron Denny and Miss Florence Denny were in town a few days.

Mrs. Ed Chrisman of Linn county was a Stayton visitor Tuesday.

G. A. Smith, V. A. Goode and G. C. Ecksman motored to Salem Tuesday.

You Can Get Freezone
The new Corn Remedy at Sloper's Drug Store.

Max Brown who has been on the sick list the past week is reported improving.

Henry Steinkamp, the Aumsville insurance man, was in town Monday on business.

Albert Frank left Monday for Detroit, where he will be employed in a logging camp.

Dr. Beauchamp reports the birth of a son to Archie C. Bates and wife, near Scio, February 1.

Harry Townes, of Portland is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Townes, of Linn county.

The school board met in regular session Monday evening and transacted routine business.

Mrs. Lucy Kearns suffered a stroke of paralysis last Saturday evening. She is reported improving.

Lang's Mineral Wonder
The tonic and blood purifier $1.00 bottles at Sloper's Drug Store.

John Mack and wife and Will Munkers and wife of North Santiam were Stayton visitors Monday.

Children Like

Rexall Castor Oil (Aromatic) free from odor and taste 25c at Beauchamp's The Rexall Store.

Mrs. Lester Smith of Portland is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Olmsted for a few days.

J. H. Blakely is home from a visit to Albany and Berlin. Mrs. Blakely remained for a longer visit.

Dan Young, who has been visiting his brother in Iowa for the past few weeks returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Munkers left Monday for a visit at the home of Rodger Montgomerys near Mehama.

Jos. Sestak and wife and Misses Maude Hollister Malana, Vonda and Sylvia Sestak motored to Salem Sunday.

Miss Lois Brackin, who fractured an ankle at the rink a few weeks ago, is able to be out again on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Scheppard of Mill City have been visiting Wm. Councilman and wife of West Stayton for a few days.

Emil Cladek left Monday for Missouri, where he expects to remain two or three months. He went via California.

R. O. Thomas, mayor of Turner, suffered a paralytic stroke one day last week. He is reported considerably improved.

Found—On the West Stayton road, a bunch of keys. Owner can have same by describing property and paying for this ad.

Lois Bracken who has been suffering from a broken ankle was able to get up to the school Monday and visit her class mates.

Miss Milea Roy and Mrs. Forrest Mack returned Saturday from Portland, where the latter selected a stock of spring millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Darby and daughter, of near Scio, were in town yesterday. The young lady came to have some dental work done.

The Lilly Hardware Co. are now receiving shipments of their large line of furniture bought on the recent trip to Portland of Mr. and Mrs. Lilly.

Wilma Ware entertained her Sunday School class Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Young. An enjoyable time was had by all present.

J. H. Thoma of the Brown-Petzel Lumber Co. reports the sale of all yard stock and dimension lumber. Shipment is being made to Salt Lake City.

Rev. John F. Leggett, of Eugene, is soliciting among the residents of Stayton and vicinity in the interest of a religious paper published in Eugene.

E. C. Titus reports the following sales of Ford cars since our last issue. Jack Johnston and Martin Stone of Lyons, Math Mueller and Geo. Sandner of Linn county.

Steinkamp Bros. have bought the herd of registered jerseys of A. Wolf and are now figuring on putting in some new barn equipment to go along with the cows.

Charles W. Caldwell of Irrigon Ore., arrived in town the latter part of last week for a visit with friends and relatives here, Tuesday in company with Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Caldwell he left for a visit with the Willis Caldwell family near Brownsville.

Jack Waltemeyer, the popular manager of the Star Theatre has been called to Texas on a business trip, having left Tuesday. He expects to be gone for four or five weeks. During his absence Mrs. Waltemeyer will keep the play house running.

Mrs. E. H. Hobson returned to her home in Scio the first of the week, after a visit at the W. H. Hobson and Dr. Pintler homes. Mrs. Hobson, who has a very fine voice, favored the congregation of the Christian church with a solo, Sunday morning.

Miss Elva Montgomery, returned Sunday from a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Caspell at Sheridan, Oregon. She says that there is an epidemic of measles at that city, and although the schools are still running, there are a 100 or more pupils absent on account of illness.

School Notes

An interesting program has been planned for the Parent-Teachers meeting, which is to be held Friday evening, Feb 9th. The subject is to be "Patriotism." Everyone is urged to attend and a special invitation has been extended to the G. A. R. and W. R. C.

The Shorthand classes are going to attempt to win a Gregg pennant for the Stayton H. S. This is a hard fight as a high standard must be reached. But never the less they are setting to the task with a "do or die" determination.

The H. S. girls are planning to swell their pledge to the Gym fund at the play "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

Examinations are taking place this week through out the various grades.

The 5th and 6th grades are sorry to hear of the continued illness of Clarence Huntley and John Olmsted but hope they will soon be back in school.

Miss Hollister is reading "The Boyhood of Washington" to her pupils.

Max Brown has been seriously ill during the past week but is report much better.

The attendance has been considerably broken through out the grades, owing to the fact that so many are ill with colds.

The Chante Club has suspended meetings altogether now and will not meet again until after "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is staged.

The Drawing Classes in all grades have more than covered the work for the half year.

Both choruses are working on the "Soldiers Chorus."

The 8th grade received word that there is to be no open book tests. Formerly they were given on several subjects.

Elma Farrar and Albert Lulay have both been absent from Miss Crabtree's room on account of illness.

Miss Marshall is reading Dicken's "The Cricket on the Hearth" in honor of his birthday which is February 7th.

Speaker Is Delayed

Attorney L. D. Mahone being delayed in reaching this city for his address at the M. E. church Sunday night the pastor suggested that the meeting adjourn and the large congregation attend the service at the Christian church, which suggestion was followed by many. Mr. Mahone arrived soon after eight o'clock too late for his appointment, on account of a delay in Salem, but will, according to Mr. Lockhart, come again at a later date and present his number as one of the features of the "Community - Citizenship" program being put on by this church.

Mehama Items

Too late for last week. N. S. Wagner returned from Stayton Saturday, from which the doctor has been attending his face.

Mrs. Stout has been ill since the bad weather began.

Giles Wagner past through town Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Burdick past through town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdick from Mehama was in Stayton on business last week.

There are quite a number of cases of the La-grippe in and around Mehama.

Fern Ridge

The party given at the Frank Etzel home last Wednesday was well attended. Those present were Geo. Lambrecht and family, Joe Etzel and wife, Mr. Freres, Theo. and Helen Freres, Grace Hottidger, John Zolkoske, John Lambrecht, Ben and Bill Teopfer, John Etzel, Laurence Siegmund, Ben Basil, Rose Basil, Anna Neitling, Mary Lahoy, John Apple, John Neitling, Al Friedel, Vintz Ritzinger, George and Tony Neitling, Pete Hafner, Lena Basil, Ella Trinberger, All Friedl, D. Kelley and Len Phillips. Everyone had a good time and departed for home at a very late hour.

John Zolkoske called on Gordon Zoelner one day last week.

John Etzel is on the sick list this week.

Nick Gehlen was visiting on the Ridge this week.

Vintz Ritzinger and Al Friedl were Sunday visitors at the N. Neitling home.

The Fern Ridge cowboy is now working for Geibler Bros.

Vintz Ritzinger will start for Rogue River in a few weeks as his father has rented a farm at that place.

Miss Trinberger is well satisfied with the work done by the 8th grade. Both boys average 100 in all the grades.

Most of the farmers on the Ridge lost a number of sheep during the snow and cold weather.

Kingston News

Mrs. V. Phillipi was a business caller in Kingston and Stayton Wednesday.

Jos. Brand, L. T. Titus, Mrs. V. Phillipi and Miss Ruth Fuson spent Wednesday evening at the T. W. Creech home.

Edna Crabtree entertained Josephine and Katherine Brand Sunday afternoon.

John Pietrok, Floyd Downing and Charlie Peters motored to Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Clayton entertained Mrs. Oliver Baker and daughter Marcile, Mrs. Alice Baker and Chas. Cole, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Crabtree called at the Mate Titus home Saturday.

Mrs. V. J. Phillipi called on Mrs. Liston Darby Thursday.

Gladys Downing visited with Elsie Peters Sunday.

Triumph Notes

Orlo Humphrey and Ben Gerner helped Herman Soppe butcher hogs Monday.

Albert Arthur was a business visitor at Amsville Thursday.

Miles Kintz called at Elvin Carters Thursday.

Jacob Staifer visited at Theo Highberger Wednesday.

Alfred Fox called at the F. A. Bell home Sunday.

Edith Highberger called at Mrs. Miles Kintz Thursday.

Orlo Humphrey and wife and Ethel King spent Sunday with home folks.

Elvin Carter and family visited W. H. Carter Sunday.

STAR THEATRE

The Celebrated

Hawaiian Troubadors

The Prettiest, Daintiest, Sweetest
Musical Novelty

Monday Feb. 12th

A Fascinating spectacle of
BEAUTIFUL HAWAII

The Last Word in Entertainment

The most enchanting weird and haunting
music in the world

Prices:—Adults 35cts. Children 15cts.

HAUSER BROS.

SALEM ALBANY EUGENE

Gymnasium and Athletic Supplies

Basket Ball Goods

Indoor Base Ball Supplies

AGENTS FOR THE

Famous Grip Sure Basket Ball Shoes

Base Ball and Lawn

Tennis Supplies

Spalding Sweaters and Jerseys

Dayton and Adlake Bicycles $28.85 to $45

Bicycle and Gun Repairing—Key Fitting

Guns, Rifles, Ammunition, Cutlery

TROJAN STUMPING POWDER

No Fumes, No Freezing

No Headaches, No Thawing

Lilly Hardware Co., Local Agents

Just Received a new line of

CORSETS

called the LOWAMC

Correct in Style. Price the lowest according to value

Call and see them

W. F. KLECKER

Last Notice of Executor.

To Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, A. Lainck, executor of the estate of Apollonia Gehlen, deceased, has this day filed in the county court of Marion County, State of Oregon, his final account in said estate, and said court has fixed and appointed Monday, March 12th, 1917, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the county court room in the county court house, in said county and state, as the time and place for the hearing of any objections to such final account, and for the settlement thereof.

Dated February 6, 1917.

Carey F. Martin,
Attorney for the estate.

Feb. 7—Mar. 7

A. LAINCK,
Executor of the estate of Apollonia
Gehlen, deceased.

Mrs. J. P. Mentz and son John and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brand visited at the V. P. Pietrok home Sunday.

Standard — One dollar a year.

James Archer of Kingston purchased the R. L. North opposite John Thomas.

Mr. Archer intends to sell we have not learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and son Merrill, were Saturday saying good their many Stayton friends. They have gone to Obispo county, Calif. they will reside.

A. C. EATON

NATUROPATH

OPTOMETRIST

Office north of
Drug Store. Con-

Phone