VOL. VII.

STAYTON, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1897.

EVENTS OF THE DAY

Epitome of the Telegraphic News of the World.

TERRE TICKS FROM THE WISES

An interesting collection of items from the two hemispheres presented in a condensed form.

A small temple will be built in St. Francisco by theosophists, and funds have already been subscribed.

A ship has been lost at Georgetown, Minn., and the crew are working to save the vessel.

A party of six persons and a dog were killed by a landslide on the coast of Ireland.

The foreign office informs the Associated Press that no communication to any power regarding Cuba and the United States has been made by Great Britain, and it is added that no representations directly or indirectly have been made on the subject to the United States by Great Britain.

The constructors of the Siberian railroad have undertaken to build a line through Manchuria, starting from a point on the river where the Siberian road joins the trans-Balkha line and terminating at Mikholskaya, Russia.

A special from Paris says it is suggested that Great Britain, France and Italy, the powers most interested, offer their services in the Cuban question in order to prevent a conflict between Spain and the United States, and terminate the revolt.

Dr. E. Furber, representing a London firm, arrived on the last steamer from the Orient in San Francisco, with cases of medical instruments valued at $60,000. He claims they are works of art, and should be admitted free of duty.

The postmaster of San Mateo, Cal., had his carrier look up weekly cases of poor families and deliver presents to them on Christmas morning.

Several children of Oregon, who had been kidnapped by the enemy for ransom, were returned to their parents at points to be named by the commissioner of the Oregon coast.

Jerry Burke, the colored boy, who had been kidnapped by the enemy, was returned to his parents at points to be named by the commissioner of the Oregon coast.

The secretary of the treasury has sent to congress a computation of the Pacific railroad debts as made by the government surveyor.

Dr. Thomas Powell, of Missouri, recently made some remarkable experiments before a party of doctors in Los Angeles in order to prove the efficacy of a new method of prescribing medicine.

The annual statement of construction published by the Railway Age, of Chicago, shows that during 1896 only 1,608 miles of railway lines were built in the United States.

Notice has been posted at all the Philadelphia & Reading coal and iron collieries, numbering forty, and also at a number of individual collieries that work would be suspended for a week.

The executive committee of the monetary conference with headquarters in Indianapolis, Ind., are sending out a call to all commercial organizations who intend to send delegates to the conference.

THE SULTAN IS OBSCURE.

Absolutely Refuses to Permit Further Interference.

Constantinople, Dec. 30.—The Russian ambassador on Saturday, sitting in concert with representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany and Austria, had an audience with the sultan, Abdul Hamid, one of many such interviews within the past year, on the same subject, the better administration of affairs in the Turkish empire.

The Russian diplomat began by warning the sultan and the Turkish government that if the no action was taken, European control of the finances of the empire would become inevitable.

The sultan, however, repeated obstinately, refusing to consider any measure of control, financial or otherwise, by the powers.

The Russian ambassador said the condition of the Turkish empire placed the throne and the caliphate in imminent peril.

In addition to these warnings, M. de Nelidoff sent a note to the Turkish government and to the palace.

The sultan's refusal to do so involves the most disagreeable consequences.

The ambassador of the powers will meet again to discuss the situation, and will recommend to the sultan and his advisers.

The envoys acting together will honorifically maintain the strictest neutrality regarding their deliberations.

These latest steps upon the part of the powers are once again reported to have produced a profound impression at St. Petersburg.

RETURN OF ANDRADE

Venezuelans Satisfied With Boundary Treaty.

MINISTER DECLINED TO TALK

No Indications of Coming Trouble in President Orozco's Republic—Lawyer Storror's Views.

New York, Dec. 30.—Senator Jose Andrade, Venezuelan minister to the United States, accompanied by James J. Storror, counsel for Venezuela before the United States boundary commission, arrived in this city this afternoon on the steamer Caracas and left for Washington tonight.

When the steamer arrived at St. Louis, Mr. Andrade was met by the Venezuelan consul and some of the attorneys of the office.

He was asked if it was true that he had been empowered by President Orozco to signify the acceptance of the treaty, and he replied:

"That is a matter I cannot discuss."

He said there was no sign of disturbance in Venezuela. Everything was very peaceful, and he did not anticipate any trouble when the congress would meet.
