

Auction items sought for MHS Knight of Arts benefit

One of the winter's biggest and most popular fundraisers is being planned and organizers need help from parents, the community and businesses of Keizer.

Knight of Arts Show and Auction, the major event to raise funds for all the arts programs at McNary High School, will be held on Saturday, March 7. Proceeds from this year's event are earmarked for a video recording system and audio upgrades in the school's Ken Collins Theatre, as well as scholarships for students who continue their education in the arts.

The goal for this year is to raise a total of $30,000. In recent years McNary Fine Arts has distributed more than $10,000 in scholarships.

There are four ways for individuals or businesses to help: donate money dedicated to a specific art, a scholarship or the overall program, volunteer to help raise financial donations, donate time at the event or volunteer to serve on the board and assist in organizing the event.

For financial or auction donations contact Jeff Cowan (chief@keizerfire.com), to volunteer at the 2015 event contact Julie Elwell (elwell.julie@gmail.com), to assist the board contact Leah Garro (garro_leah@salkeizer.k12.or.us), to volunteer at the Knight of Arts Show contact Jim Taylor (taylor_jim@salkeizer.k12.or.us).

Habitat meeting for potential home buyers

Those interested in learning more about partnering with Habitat for Humanity on their path to homeownership are invited to attend an application information meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 3, at Salem Evangelical Church.

The church is located at 455 Locust Street, in Salem. A meeting for English speakers will begin at 6 p.m. A meeting for Spanish speakers will begin at 6:45 p.m. RSVP by calling (503) 364-6642. The meeting is free and open to the public.

Habitat for Humanity provides an opportunity for families to build and buy their own homes. Houses are sold to new homeowners at no profit. Mortgage lengths vary depending on income. Mortgage payments help pay for construction of future homes in the Mid-Willamette Valley.

For more information on this meeting or other Habitat for Humanity programs, please visit www.salemhabitat.org or contact the Habitat for Humanity office at 503-364-6642.

Habitat for Humanity is an equal housing opportunity provider.

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Ken & Carolyn Ream, Realtors

JOHN L. SCOTT, REAL ESTATE
1124 Cornucopia St NW • Salem • 503-399-0089

One of Keizer's most beloved teachers has joined her husband in serving our community's real estate needs.

Carolyn Ream has joined her husband Ken to form The Dream Team with John L. Scott Real Estate's west Salem office.

Carolyn and Ken have been serving the Keizer community for more than 34 years in various capacities.

The Reams believe the fundamental basis for a good working relationship with their clients is honest, openness and great communication.

"This is what we bring to you each and everyday in the real estate market," said Carolyn. "The process of selling or buying a home can very stressful and an inconvenient time of your time; we understand this. It is our job to make this experience go smoothly."

Carolyn and Ken promise to do more than just list their client's home and or help them buy a new one.

"We help with every aspect that you may encounter," said Ken.

John L. Scott Real Estate is located at 1124 Cornucopia St. NW. The office phone number is 503-399-0089.

Carolyn can be reached at 503-551-3656, Ken can be reached at 503-881-5335.

You can find them on the Internet at ReamRealEstate.com.

As Carolyn and Ken say: "Let our TEAMWORK make your DREAM WORK!"
