

Wanderers walk at KRP Feb. 8

Join the Willamette Wanderers of Salem & Keizer as they stroll 5K and 10K routes in Keizer starting at Keizer Rapids Park on Sunday, Feb. 8.

The walk will begin at 2 p.m. with registration in beginning at 1:45 p.m. There is no charge for participating.

The routes will take participants through the nearby residential areas bordering the Willamette River as well as through two parks on the 5K route and five parks on the 10K route. Dogs are welcomed provided they are leashed and can get along well with other dogs who may also be walking.

Participants walk at their own, comfortable speed. The walk is flat and accommodating for those with young children in strollers.

For more information, contact Julia, pjwesterberg@comcast.net, 541-967-3001. The club's website is www.willwander.weebly.com.

MHS art exhibit opens Saturday

Keizer Art Association will be hosting an exhibit of art by McNary High School students in February.

Entries will be the artist's choice of subject and medium with up to two per student. The show started this week and runs to Feb. 28.

An artists' reception will be held on Saturday, Feb. 7, from 2 to 4 p.m. Awards will be presented at that time. The public is invited to come and discuss the works with the artists during the reception.

TEDxSalem looking for speakers

TEDxSalem, Salem's independently organized TED event, is seeking speaker applicants for its third annual event Saturday, Oct. 3.

The TEDxSalem 2015 speaker application is available online at <http://tedxsalem.us/speaker-application>. The application closes on Thursday, Feb. 19.

TEDxSalem speaker committee is looking for experts in varied fields who have new and dynamic ideas worth spreading.

Some talk ideas the speaker selection committee are particularly interested in are: microbiomes, the Internet of Things vs. Internet privacy, 3-D printing, internet security, advances in prosthetics, ultra running/ultra sports, high level math, big data, hybrid electric trains, passive houses, new advances in brain science or any other science, and animal psychology.

Tickets will be on sale in the spring. For more information, visit www.tedxsalem.us.

Pre-order Keizer book

The Keizer Heritage Museum is taking early orders for Images of America: Keizer, a book chronicling Keizer's history through the early 1960s. The book will be published by Arcadia Publishing which has printed hundreds of similar books for small towns and downtowns across the country.

Dozens of photographs from the museum's collection as well as photos submitted by the public paint a picture of the history of Keizer from the late 19th century to the early 1960s.

Though the book will not be available until April Keizerites can order copies early for $20. Only 90 pre-sold books will be available. Contact the Keizer Heritage Museum at 503-393-9660 or visit the museum 2 to 4 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday or 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday.
