Cougars celebrate reading

Kennedy Elementary staff and students celebrated Read Across America Day early with a day of reading activities Monday, March 2.

Students and staff dressed up a book characters with many creative costumes. Guest readers from the Keizer Fire District, Keizer Police Department and the Assistance League visited classrooms to read to students.

Students took advantage of a book cover photo shoot and ended the day with an assembly to kick off the All-School Kennedy Read-A-Thon for the month of March.

Students: Get money for college through KHF

Applications are now available for the 2015 Keizer Heritage Foundation scholarships.

The foundation will award the $1,000 Pearl Langeland Memorial Scholarship, which honors the longtime Keizer teacher and Heritage board member. An additional scholarship of $1,000 or two of $500 each will also be awarded.

The scholarships are available to current year high school graduates who have lived in Keizer for the past five years or more and who plan to attend a four-year or two-year college or vocational school within one calendar year of award selection.

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic performance, school and community activities, monetary need, and an accurate and complete application form.

The Keizer Heritage Foundation owns and operates the Keizer Heritage Center which houses the Keizer Community Library, Keizer Heritage Museum, Keizer Art Association and the Enid Joy Mount Art Gallery. The foundation made commitment to give back to the community that supported the restoration of the original 1916 Keizer School building into the current Keizer Heritage Center.

Applications may be obtained from your high school, requested by e-mail at heritage@wvi.com or downloaded at www.keizerheritage.org/scholarships.html. Applications must be submitted to the Keizer Heritage office at 980 Chemawa Road N.E. by 5 p.m. on April 3. They can also be mailed to Keizer Heritage, P.O. 20845, Keizer, OR 97307. For more information contact the Keizer Heritage Center, at 503-393-9660 or heritage@wvi.com.

MHS club will spotlight human trafficking April 7

The McNary High School AWARE Club is hosting an event called In Plain Sight, Tuesday, April 7.

Local experts will weigh in on the problem of human trafficking and how individuals can get involved to help prevent it and assist in recovery for victims. Speakers include representatives from Center for Hope and Safety, Multnomah County Sheriff's Office, Marion County Crime Victims Advocacy, Compassion First and Survivor.

The AWARE Club focuses on raising awareness concerning issues of human trafficking.

Financial donations and discarded cell phones will be accepted for the Center of Hope and Safety.

The forum begins at 6 p.m. in the McNary auditorium.

The event is rated PG-13, but students in grades eight through 12 are invited along with their parents.

Kathy Belcher
Attorney at Law

Protecting yourself and protecting the future of your family is important to everyone. Sometimes that protection takes the knowledge and experience of an attorney.

Kathy Belcher, of the Law Offices of McGinty & Belcher, works to help clients with some of the most important and private issues a person can face. Kathy specializes in estate planning, elder law issues, probate and social security. Each of these areas are important for those who want to protect their assets for themselves and their heirs.

Kathy and her team are also experts in wills and trusts, asset protection, medical directives and guardian and conservatorships, all issues that are making headlines in the news these days.

A graduate of George Fox University and the Willamette University law school, Kathy Belcher is often called upon to present educational seminars for both public and private groups.

That is the kind of knowledge and experience you want when you need help to protect your future.

Kathy Belcher can be reached at 503-371-9636. The law office is located conveniently just north of downtown Salem at 694 High Street. N.E.
