Goodall School gets renewal from SKSB

By HERB SWETT
For the Keizertimes

A revised contract renewal for Jane Goodall Environmental Middle School was approved by the Salem-Keizer School Board on Tuesday.

The new five-year term, which will begin July 1, had received board approval Dec. 9, 2014, but after reviewing state and district policies, school personnel asked for a revision.

The revised contract maintains 85 percent average daily membership funding for the school and adds language on state assessment results to the goals and evaluation guidelines.

Also approved were contracts for Michael Wolfe, chief operating officer, and Ken Parshall, assistant superintendent. Each contract is for a three-year term to start July 1. Wolfe's was approved unanimously, but Paul Kylo voted against Par-shall's contract. Neither Kylo or Parshall would comment on the negative vote.

Many routine personnel actions were approved, including the following for the McNary High School attendance area:

- Changing the status of Melissa Juiskowiak, third-grade teacher at Clear Lake Elementary School, from full-time to part-time effective Sept. 1.

- Employment as temporary full-time teachers Lori Lloyd, third grade, Clear Lake; Stacy Fields, English as a Second Language, Claggett Creek Middle School; Avamarie Mallett, learning resources center, Weddle Elementary School; and Vincent Suetos, LRC, McNary.

- Resignations of Timothy Brassfield, choir-drama teacher, Claggett Creek; Sandy Watts, English and social studies teacher, Claggett Creek; and Jessica Brammer, first-grade English for speakers of other languages teacher, Gubser Elementary School.

- Retirement of Jeffrey Freeman, physical science teacher, McNary.

At the end of the meeting, Mayor Cathy Clark of Keizer told the board she and other city officials were looking forward to continued cooperation with the district.

Headwear trending at Keizer museum

The Keizer Heritage Museum is exhibiting a display of women's hats, gloves and handbags through March 31.

The accessories, from the private collection of Kathe Leigh Mash, date to the 1940s through 1970s. The hats are in various styles and colors, matching the style of the era they were designed. Ms. Mash wore many of the hats that she collected during her world travels over 40 years.

Mash, a Keizer resident, has shown exhibits of her china paintings and was recently named director of the Oregon Porcelain Art Retreat in Seaside.

Museum hours are 2 to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays. Plenty of parking is available at the Keizer Heritage Center located at 980 Chemawa Road NE. For more information call 503-393-9660 or visit the web site at keizerheritage.org.

Rob Robertson, Owner

Businesses, especially small, owner-operated ones, are not banks and generally can not afford to carry account balances for long periods of time. Commerce works best when customers pay their bills. Sometimes, after trying to collect debts, businesses must turn to professionals to help collect money owed to them.

That's when they can turn to Cascade Collections, Inc. Since March 1970 Cascade Collections, Inc. has represented businesses in the collection of past due accounts including resolution of disputes and payment negotiations. Owner Rob Robertson and his professional staff gather information, follow up on investigations and, when necessary, use legal means to ensure repayment.

"We offer our clients help in establishing a billing and collection procedure time schedule to help increase the best rate of return for them," says Robertson.

Cascade Collections offers a letter writing service prior to a past due account being assigned for collection. "This is a notice sent on our own letterhead giving the consumer a final 30 days to remedy their debt and deal directly with our client," Robertson explains.

There is a small cost to our client, however, 100 percent of the money collected during the initial 30-day period goes directly to the client; there is no commission owed during this period.

Cascade Collections is a full-service collection agency, dedicated to the success of their clients through the highest level of professional and ethical collections procedure providing their customers the best rate of recovery on their past due accounts.

"Our mission is to maintain a positive reputation of our industry and add to the health of our economy. We represent our clients with integrity and treat our customers with respect," Robertson says.
