Dann Kevin Fish

June 25, 1955 – March 23, 2015

Dann Kevin Fish, a resident of Keizer, died on March 23, 2015 in Salem. He was 59 years old.

Dann was born on June 25, 1955 in Salem and was the son of Ernest and Joyce (Langford) Fish. He grew up in the Salem/Keizer area and graduated from McNary High School in 1973. He went on to complete two years of college at the University of Oregon and he later earned his cosmetology degree in Salem.

In the early 1980s Dann moved to Portland where he worked as a hair stylist in a small Portland salon. He returned to Salem a few years later and spent most of his adult life residing between Portland and the Salem area.

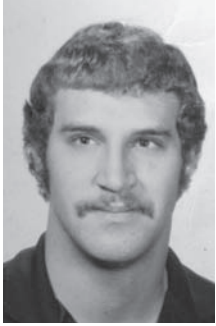

Dann was a very charming, straight to the point personality who was grateful for life. He enjoyed the company of people and loved their humor. He was loving and kind, always putting the needs of others first. He had a special bond with his sister Kimberly. He was also a proud mentor and role model at his AA Chapter where he successfully celebrated more than 30 years of sobriety.

Dann took pride in his hobbies, too. He loved the water and sailing. He also enjoyed trips to Puerto Vallarta. He was a person people were proud to know and someone who will be dearly missed by the many people whose lives he touched.

Dann is survived by his mother, Joyce Fish-Javor-Bolles of Keizer; sister Kimberly Fish-Wright of Salem; brother Bradley Fish (life partner, Dr. Patrick Dominguez) of Los Angeles; aunts Shirley Schwertmann and Lynne Langford of Portland; and uncle, Monte (wife, Becky) Langford of Oregon City along with numerous cousins. His father, Ernest, preceded him in death.

A visitation will be Friday, April 3 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with a funeral service on Saturday, April 4 at 1 p.m., both at Howell, Edwards, Doerksen Funeral Home. A committal service will follow at Belcrest Memorial Park.

Contributions may be made in memory of Dann to the Recovery Outreach Community Center, roccsaalem.org. You may also visit Dann's online memorial at www.hed-fh.com.

Flood research continues for KPIC

By CRAIG MURPHY
Of the Keizertimes

Members of the Keizer Points of Interest Committee (KPIC) are looking for information about past floods in the city.

So why not look through old family books?

That's just what KPIC member Kris Adams did recently.

KPIC members are working on a project that will culminate with a kiosk at Keizer Rapids Park detailing some of the biggest floods of the Willamette River in the Keizer area. The topic has been discussed at recent KPIC meetings, including the one on March 17.

"I found this little book we had, about the 1964 flood I'm doing," Adams said. "One tiny section talks about Keizer. That has a picture; that's my house. I found more about the Christmas flood of 1964 but there's not as much about Keizer online. There are still a few things."

Adams noted she was quite young when her family got the book.

"I was only 5," she said. "My parents bought the book for $1. We've kept it."

Roland Herrera, the Keizer City Council liaison to KPIC, noted local newspapers had some great pictures of the 1996 floods which could be tracked down.

KPIC member Erica Hedberg noted she has made some progress in getting information about the 1890 flood.

"I found a picture of my flood," she said. "The Marion County Historical Society had pictures of that plus the one from 1964. A lot were from Salem, some were from Keizer, I'm just not sure where."

Debbie Lockhart, deputy city recorder for Keizer, said KPIC members have the freedom to decide how the information gets presented.

"Pictures are good, then you could do a few explanatory things," Lockhart said. "There could even be statistics like how long the flood lasted and how high it got."

Hedberg noted she found one website with information about what caused the area to flood.

Anita Zahniser noted some past Oral History interviews – another ongoing KPIC project – have mentions of the 1943 floods. She suggested getting a group together to share their memories.

"Wouldn't that be fun to have a panel interview talking just about the flood?" Zahniser asked.

In other business March 17: • KPIC members discussed people that could be interviewed for the Oral History project. Zahniser noted Jerry McGee wanted his redone, while Adams is looking to do some of the Zielinski family members. The idea was also brought up to do the Boucher family.

• It was confirmed the new sign honoring Japanese history in the area was recently installed in the kiosk at Pfc. Ryan J. Hill Memorial Park in Keizer Station. The sign is on the other side of one honoring Marie Dorion.

"I encourage everyone to go out and see it," Jill Bonney-Hill said.
