IRIS FESTIVAL 2015

REVIEW IN PICTURES

“Early Risers”

A: Waving in a parade makes one hungry.
 B: Addison, Junior and Peyton Zivolich show off their chalk art.
 C: You're never too young to be in Charros de Oregon.
 D: This 2010 Dodge Challenger of Chris Ayers won first in custom 2000 and newer in the Elks Car Show. Craig Ziegenhagel's orange Challenger in the background was best of show.
 E: The Pet Parade goes down River Road.
 F: The Beat Goes Marching On marches in the parade.
 G: JSwift Band performs on the main stage on Saturday.
 H: Sherriff Jason Myers jumped out of his patrol car during the parade to pass out stickers.
 I: Anna Rodriguez gets ready for the parade with son Jesse, 7 and Elias, three months.
 J: Mayor Cathy Clark shows off her daughter's guinea pig during the Mayor's Pet Parade.
 K: Tanya Hamilton and Meredith Coy pass out information about the Big Toy during the parade.
 L: The weekend stayed dry, but clouds were a constant, as seen here on Friday night.
 M: Sadie Sell, 9, holds a sign that Lexiauna Andreade, 13, Lainey Jo Sell, 5 and Malakai Conder, 5, agree with.
 N: The Iris Festival Parade sponsored by Valley Credit Services starts down River Road.
 O: Love Bomb Go-Go had its band again this year plus these contortionists on top of a bus.

 KEIZERTIMES

Keizer CERT is seeking items for its garage sale fundraiser on Saturday and Sunday, June 20-21 starting at 8 a.m. 4575 River Rd N, Keizer (next to Faith Lutheran Church)

Sale proceeds will be used for supplies and equipment, and to further the training of Keizer CERT members and others in our community.

We are looking for donations of items that can be used in our sale. We are a nonprofit organization so all donations are tax deductible.

If you have items you'd like to donate, please contact Bonnie at (503) 393-9737 or (503) 339-6532.

The Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Program educates people about disaster preparedness for hazards that may impact their area and trains them in basic disaster response skills.

▲ Dr. John McDonald, DMD

Q: When is the best age for my child to be seen by an Orthodontist?

A: The American Association of Orthodontics recommends children be seen by age seven. Most orthodontic problems can be identified by this age and there is often early treatment that can simplify or prevent later treatment.
