Jerry Miholer

January 24, 1942-
April 11, 2015

Jerry (Gerald) S. Miholer, 73, was born January 24, 1942 in Three Rivers, Mich. to the late Frank (Dick) Lewis Miholer and Margaret (Peggy) Louise Peterson Miholer. He died April 11, 2015 in Green Valley, Ariz.

J. Miholer

Jerry graduated from East Leyden High School in Franklin Park, Ill. in 1959 and that summer went to work for Motorola. He later transferred to Zenith Radio in Chicago. While at Zenith, he studied engineering at DeVry University. Jerry served his country in Vietnam with the U.S. Army and received his honorable discharge papers in January 1966.

He married his first wife, Sue, in 1968 and settled in Kalamazoo, Mich., where they had two sons, Jeffrey Scott and Steven James. In 1977 the family moved to Oregon, settling in the Salem-Keizer area where he opened his own business: Northwest Microwave Oven Service.

In 1993, he married Kraylen Kelly Miller. Jerry retired from his microwave oven repair business in 2004 and he and Kraylen spent several years traveling the country in an RV. By 2008, they had visited all 48 states in the continental USA. In 2013 they took a land tour of Alaska and the Canadian Yukon. In February, Jerry and Kraylen spent nine days visiting Hawaii – completing their 50th state.

Jerry and Kraylen bought a home in Green Valley, Ariz. in 2008. After three years of commuting to Oregon for the summer, they decided to make Green Valley their permanent year-round home.

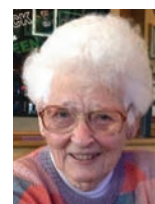

Jerry leaves behind his wife Kraylen, his two sons Jeff and Steve, both still in the Salem-Keizer area; two step-children, Bill Miller and Erin Miller, and six grandchildren. His mother Peggy also survives him, as do his two sisters, Mary Sue and Judy, and his brother, Frank.

There will be no services, but remembrances may be made to a favorite charity.

Joan Barker

July 28, 1931-
July 9, 2015

Joan Barker, 83, passed away on July 9, 2015. Joan was born in Kirkwood, Illinois to Eva and Harold Baldwin. Joan moved to Canby in 1945 and married Arnold H. Gardner. They had three children. Arnold died in 1971.

Joan Barker

Then Joan worked as a secretary at Highland and Bush Elementary Schools and then as office manager at McNary High School. Later Joan married Bruce Barker until his death in 2003.

Joan applied her generous nature beyond her family. She mentored school children, through which she developed many long-term relationships. Later she volunteered nearly full-time managing the Keizer/Salem Senior Center kitchen. She loved to bake cookies and candies and she generously handed them out.

Joan is survived by her brother Jerry Baldwin and sister Anita Woodruff, her three children Judy Davidson (Dan), Janet Stride (Jon) and Arnie Gardner (Robin). She is also survived by grandchildren Brian and Brad Davidson, Eric and Jason Stride and Sara Henricks, Brett and Scott Gardner and Lindsey Gerard, and six great grandchildren.

A memorial service celebrating Joan's life will take place at 1 p.m. Friday, July 24 at the Keizer Heritage Center, 980 Chemawa Road NE in Keizer. Memorial gifts may be made to the Keizer/Salem Senior Center, 930 Plymouth Drive NE, Salem, OR 97303.

Mark Duane Wieglanda

May 29, 1953-
July 11, 2015

Mark Duane Wieglanda, 62, was born on May 29, 1953 to Harry and Maxine Wieglanda. He lost his battle to tongue and throat cancer on July 11 surrounded by family and friends and went home to be with his beloved Jesus.

M. Wieglanda

Mark attended Four Corners Elementary, Parrish Middle School and graduated in 1971 from North Salem High School. He worked for 20 years at Oregon State University in the Facilities Maintenance Department, retiring on July 1.

Mark was a longtime member of the Salem Radio Controlled Pilots Association where he was a flight instructor. He loved to build and fly his planes. Mark also loved spending time off-roading with his family and friends. Mark was a member of Lakepoint Community Church and served as a council member.

Mark was preceded in death by his father, Harry Wieglanda; his grandparents; his nephew, Travis Wieglanda and brother-in-law, Norm Johnson.

Mark is survived by his beloved wife, Sharanne Wieglanda of Salem; his mother, Maxine Wieglanda of Bend; his son, Nicholas Wieglanda of Aumsville; his step-sons, William (Brittany) Stevenson of Keizer and Keith (Angela) Stevenson of Keizer; his grandchildren Shakia Wieglanda, Laurel Stevenson and Colton Stevenson; his siblings, Ron (Dolores) Wieglanda of Terrebone and their children, Becky Johnson of Redmond and children, Todd (Kathy) Wieglanda of Forest Grove and Kristel Wieglanda of Bend.

Private family interment was on July 16. Celebration of Mark's life will be on July 26 at 3 p.m. at Lakepoint Community Church, Keizer Civic Center, 930 Chemawa Road NE, Keizer, OR 97303. Mark requested that it be a party and no one wear black. In lieu of flowers donations in Mark's name may be made to Salem RC Pilots Association Youth Program, EAA Chapter 292, PO Box 13214, Salem, OR 97309.
