

A night for neighbors... and water fights

Tuesday, Aug. 1, was National Night Out and several Keizer neighborhoods took the opportunity to organize gatherings, potlucks and water fights that helped beat back a looming heat wave.

Keizer officers and other city officials took advantage of the opportunity to meet with city residents and discuss concerns. More than one discussion focused on the upcoming total solar eclipse and planning for it.

A: Ryder and Chance Peters-Berkley help Keizer Fire District volunteer Matt Miller direct a hose.
B: Kiyannah Anderson douses Alexes Chavez.
C: Sarah and Morgan Greenlaw, Judeah Green and Skyler Duncan chill out in the shade.

D: Robert and Roberta Barr make their way to a gathering on Hasbrook Avenue.
E: Brenda Bontrager and Jean Hunter talk with Lt. Andrew Copeland of the Keizer Police Department.
F: Cameron Harrington soaks himself in a hose supplied by Marion County Fire District No. 1 at Clear Lake Elementary.
G: Dexter Eisenhauer decides whether to retrieve his truck.
H: KPD Reserve Officer Garrett Van Cleave talks with Tim Alvey.
