The 47th Annual Great Oregon Steam-Up continues Aug. 5 and 6 at Powerland Heritage Park in Brooks. Last week, the showcase of machinery small and large drew a steady stream of attendees. The Steam-Up includes trains, trolleys, farm machines and a steam-powered sawmill. In addition to special activities like a quilt show, swap meet, and a youth passport program, Powerland features 12 heritage museums with exhibits ranging from cars to construction equipment. Daily admission is $12 per person for those 12 and older. Weekend passes are available for $20. Trolley rides range from $3 to $5. Gates open at 7 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.
