On his honor...

Submitted Daniel Beal, one of Keizer's newest Eagle Scouts from Troop 121, stands next to his final project in Keizer Station. Beal installed a bike rack near Panera Bread. He is a 2015 graduate of McNary High School, and will start college this fall at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma studying computer science. His Court of Honor will be held on Sept. 1 at 7 p.m. at Our Savior's Lutheran Church.

Road work ahead

Feeling like it's impossible to traverse Keizer without a construction delay or rerouting?

Work started this week on two projects. The most prominent was the start of work preparing Chemawa Road N.E. for a repaving job slated for next week.

Residents of the Gubser neighborhood likely ran into a repaving job on McLeod Lane NE.

A: Juan Aleman, Tyler Davison and Lyle Bell at work on Chemawa Road.

B: Repaving on McLeod Lane.

Pitch in for Day of Service

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints is planning its second Day of Service at Champoeg State Park on Saturday, Sept. 12, and the public is invited to join hundreds of other volunteers. Chores will include spreading bark dust, removing ivy and blackberry vines throughout the park.

Clean up work at the park will begin at 9 a.m. and be concluded by noon. A hot dog barbecue will follow.

Volunteers are asked to bring rakes, shovels and wheelbarrows. Work gloves are a must. The day will start at the Oak Grove overflow parking area where duties and teams will be assigned.

For further information contact Didi Orr at 503-869-8746 or Phil Bay at 503-930-2649.

School supplies needed

The Keizer Community Food Bank will once again be giving away school supply packets this year.

Donations can be brought to the food barrel cart in the Fellowship Hall at Fort Knox Presbyterian Church or to Faith Lutheran Church before 11 a.m. on Thursdays.

Items needed: backpacks, 16- and 24-count Crayola crayons, glue sticks and white glue, Fiskars scissors, No. 2 pencils, pens, pink pearl erasers, pencil cases, three-ring notebooks, wide lined notebook paper, tissues, eight-count broad tip markers, 12-count colored pencils and rulers with both standard and metric measurements.

About 100 packets are given away each year. Any leftover items will be given to a Keizer elementary school.

Want to be on the Keizer holiday card?

A call has been made to area artists to enter submissions for the 2015 City of Keizer holiday greeting card.

The Public Arts Commission, which works to bring art into the community, invite residents of all ages to submit art work that expresses the holiday season in Keizer.

The deadline is Friday, Sept. 18. All submitted entries become the property of the city.

Contest rules and an application can be downloaded at keizer.org; they are also available at city hall.

The selected art piece will be used for the City of Keizer's 2015 Holiday Greeting card and the winning entrant will receive a $100 gift card to Michael's Crafts.
