

Volcanoes struggle for consistency

By HERB SWETT
For the Keizertimes

The Volcanoes got into something of a slump, going 3-4 (see separate story page 10) in the last seven days before press time.

Aug. 19: Volcanoes 10, Hillsboro 7

It was Ronnie Jebavy's big night as Salem-Keizer kept the visiting Hops from a series sweep.

The game was tight, but nobody could shut down Jebavy. The Volcanoes' center fielder hit two home runs and a triple in four times at bat, driving in four runs from the leadoff spot, scoring three and making several outstanding defensive plays. It was the first time this season for a Volcano to homer more than once in a game.

Hillsboro started off with three runs in the first inning, all on the first of two home runs by Trevor Mitsui. The Volcanoes scored once in the first, when Jebavy scored on a ground out, and once in the second, when Jebavy's triple drove in Junior Amion, who had doubled.

Salem-Keizer added two runs in the fifth, on a bases-empty homer by Chris Shaw and a single by Julio Pena that brought Jose Vizcaino Jr. home. The Volcanoes were up by a run and never lost their lead.

Eric Sim was the winning pitcher at 1-1, in relief of Nathanael Santiago. Ryan Halstead got his fifth save. Hillsboro starter Carlos Hernandez was the losing pitcher.

Aug. 20: Eugene 12, Volcanoes 5

The visiting Emeralds led all the way and made things rough in the fifth and sixth innings.

Grant Watson, recently promoted from the Arizona Instructional League, started for Salem-Keizer, and the Volcanoes trailed only 3-2 in the fourth inning, when he was removed because of a pitch count. In the next two innings, Rayan Hernandez and Armando Paniagua got hammered.

The Volcanoes had eight hits, including Miguel Gomez's fifth home run of the season. Gomez, Steven Duggar and Jose Vizcaino had two hits each. Eugene had 14 hits, one a two-run homer by Eloy Jimenez.

Watson was the losing pitcher with an 0-1 record. Emerald starter Oscar De La Cruz was the winner at 5-3.

The best thing for Volcano fans may have been the attendance of 3,110.

Aug. 21: Eugene 7, Volcanoes 6

The Emeralds achieved a series win by doing everything better than the Volcanoes, except that Volcano pitchers had more strikeouts and each club made two errors.

Salem-Keizer led for a while, scoring two runs in the fourth inning for a 4-3 lead, but Eugene tied the score in the fifth and went ahead for good in the sixth.

The visitors outthit the Volcanoes 13-7, but Salem-Keizer's John Riley hit the only home run of the game. It was his third of the season and came in the third with Miguel Gomez on base. Andrew Ely had four hits for the Emeralds and Donnie Dewees three.

Adbert Alzolay was the winning pitcher in relief at 4-2, and Scott Effross had his second save. David Owen was the loser in relief. Volcano starter Logan Webb had five strikeouts, as did closer Cory Taylor.

Aug. 23: Everett 7, Volcanoes 2

Salem-Keizer never led in the opener of this five-game road series.

The AquaSox outthit the Volcanoes only 9-6 but had six extra-base hits to their visitors' three.

Everett started the scoring in the second inning with two runs, which came on a two-run home run by Ryan Volcano Ronnie Jebavy slides into second just ahead of a throw from home plate in the game Friday, Aug. 21.

Uhl. Two more AquaSox runs came in the fourth, and that was all for Drew Leenhouts, whose record fell to 6-4 although he left with a 2.89 earned run average.

Rayan Hernandez pitched the next two innings and gave up three runs, but only one was earned, because of his own throwing error in the fifth.

The Volcanoes scored in the eighth when Junior Amion, who had walked and moved to third base on a double by Steven Duggar, went home on a ground out. Their other run was a homer by John Riley in the ninth.

Rohn Pierce was the winning pitcher in relief with a 4-0 record.

Aug. 24: Volcanoes 4, Everett 3

The Volcanoes evened the series, scoring all four of their runs in the second inning.

Steven Duggar was the star, with two singles and a double in three times at bat and two runs batted in.

In the Salem-Keizer second, Fernando Pujadas singled, Junior Amion walked and Christian Lichtenthaler singled, loading the bases. Ashford Fulmer walked, forcing Pujadas home. Ronnie Jebavy singled Amion home. Duggar doubled, driving in Lichtenthaler and Fulmer.

Everett's runs came in the first, third and fifth innings. Drew Jackson of the AquaSox stole his 41st base of the season and scored the first-inning run.

Starter Nolan Riggs was the winning pitcher with a 4-2 record. Ryan Halstead had his fifth save. Everett starter Luiz Gohara took the loss, running his record to 3-5.

Aug. 25: Volcanoes 1, Everett 4

Salem-Keizer never led in this game, which was a one-hitter through six innings.

Jacob Brentz, the AquaSox starter, went six innings, allowing only a single to Christian Lichtenthaler and two walks, striking out five for his first win with no losses.

Everett scored once in the second inning and once in the fourth. The Volcanoes cut the lead to one run in the seventh when Junior Amion, who had singled, reached second on an error and third on a ground out, scored on a wild pitch by reliever Joey Strain.

The AquaSox added a run in the seventh on a home run by Alex Jackson and one in the eighth on a walk, a bunt, a grounder and a single.

Kyle Wilcox was Everett's closer with his eighth save. Mike Connolly, who started for the Volcanoes, allowed eight hits but struck out six in his five innings and is now 4-2.

Ask Mr. Trash

Q. How do I keep my trash from blowing in the wind?

A. Bagging loose trash and closing the cart lid will help prevent wind related issues, keep pets and crows from spreading the waste, and will even help with cart cleanliness. It's also a good idea to roll shredded paper up into a paper sack before placing it in your blue cart for recycling. Please help us keep your neighborhood clean!
