McNary's second string quarterback Josiah Gilbert crashes through the defense on a keeper during Blue Day, Aug. 22.

"The new offense has been built around us and that feels really good. It feels like something everyone can handle and be part of," Sader said. "If there's one thing I want to see us improve it's taking the time outside of practice to learn plays. We can run 20 plays and only run one right and it doesn't do anything for us, but if we run 10 plays perfectly we're in the end zone."

Auvinen, of course, has goals he'd like to see the team work toward.

"Offensively, we'd like to go 50/50 with the run and pass, but everybody always says that. We'd like to keep close to that ratio to keep opponents off balance more than we were able to last year," Auvinen said.

Receiving duties are likely to be handled by Kyle Aguilar, Kyle Aicher, Gage Mance and Brendan Van Voorhis, one of the top sprinters in the state.

"Brendan can run like the wind and he's not just a track guy playing football, he's got good game skills," Auvinen said.

On defense, handled by new defensive coach KJ McCrae, Auvinen said the team will try to be less blitz-heavy with a fourman front rather than three. Senior Lacroix Hill, who is injury-free for the first time in a while, will likely be the pointman as defensive end and defensive tackle.

"I like our defense this season, they're tough and flying around and physical," Hill said. "It's not going to be easier this season, but we have a good connection and I hope we can dominate."

Auvinen said the Celt defense surprised their offense in early scrimmages.

"You could tell that they were playing at a different tempo and the offense had to take a step back and reassess. The challenge for the offense is to match the defense now," Auvinen said.

Per usual, putting it all together will be the biggest challenge for the team, but Sperle thought the Celtics were up to the task.

"We need to play with tenacity nonstop. We've taken plays off in the past and we need to stay fluid through the whole game," he said.
