Virginia L. Quesnel

Feb. 5, 1926 – Oct. 9, 2015

Virginia L. Quesnel, went home to be with the Lord on Oct. 9, 2015. She was born in Leslie, Ark. on Feb. 5, 1926, to Jesse and Ora Sutterfield. In 1938 the family moved to Woodburn.

During World War II she worked in the Hyster factory in Portland. When the war ended she was hired as a waitress at the Club Café by Leo Quesnel. Leo and Virginia were married in November 1946. In 1948 their oldest son Gregory was born, followed in order by David (1950) and Kent (1956). In 1955 the couple moved to Salem. She later worked at Kelly Farquar until she retired in 1991. Leo passed away in 1978.

In 1992 Virginia moved from the family home and lived with Kent, his wife Patti and their three girls until her passing.

Virginia is survived by her sons and their wives: Greg and Michelle (Bend); David and Sandy (West Linn); and Kent and Patti (Salem). In addition she is survived by eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Her service will be held at Belcrest Memorial Park in Salem on Saturday, Oct. 17 at 11 a.m. A celebration of life will follow at Rudy's Restaurant at noon. Viewing will be on Friday, Oct. 16 at Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service from 3 to 6 p.m.

Margaret Joyce Stabler

May 12, 1922 – Oct. 6, 2015

Margaret Joyce Stabler of Keizer, 93, departed to be with her Lord on Oct. 6, 2015, at Salem General Hospital.

Margaret was born on May 12, 1922, in Gresham, the youngest daughter of Joseph and Pearl Exley. She had four brothers and one sister. Margaret's mother passed away when Margaret was 4. She was raised by her Aunt Rose in Gresham.

Margaret graduated from Gresham High School in 1940, and later attended the University of Oregon. Margaret married Frederick D. (Fred) Stabler on Sept. 1, 1946, in Gresham. Their children were born in 1948 (Linda), 1951 (Diane), 1953 (Nancy) and 1956 (Bill). They were married for 62 years prior to Fred's passing in 2009.

They lived in Gresham until they moved to McMinnville, which became their hometown until Fred's retirement in 1980. They moved to Salem in 1980 and eventually moved to the Avamere retirement community in 2000.

Margaret was active in PEO and Eastern Star for many years. Margaret and Fred were proficient dancers and loved square dancing and especially round dancing. They were world travelers. Margaret loved playing cards with their friends and family.

Margaret is survived by daughter Linda Stabler, her daughter and son-in-law Nancy and Ron Burnett, son and daughter-in-law Bill and Julie Stabler and various nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

An informal memorial service and celebration of life will occur on Oct. 24, 2015 from noon until 2 p.m. at Avamere Retirement Center, 5210 River Road North, Keizer.

The family would like to give a special thank you to the caregivers at Avamere. Assisting is Virgil T. Golden Funeral Service.
