

SOCCER,

Even a cursory glance at statistics from the past two seasons reveals just how much the team improved. In 2014, the Celts allowed 55 goals and scored just 14. This year, the team netted 32 and allowed only 30.

"Our two primary goals this season were to compete in every game, and score more goals on opponents than they scored on us. As a coach I am extremely proud of this team and how they competed this year. The future is extremely bright," Nash said.

Contributions also came from up and down the roster. Sophomore Jessy Shore led the team with 10 goals and three assists; Kayla Evans had four goals and two assists; Michaela Sanchez had four goals and an assist; Natalia Gonzalez had three goals; Kelli Miller, Kolbie Kopp and Cadland had two goals each; Katy Wyatt, Janie Jarmin, Munguia, Isabella Heath and Abby Smith all had one goal each; and Abi Rodriguez and Abby Hawley both had an assist. Freshman goalkeeper Sydney Snapp also played a large part in limiting the goals scored by opposing teams.

Celt Janie Jarmin gets a steal from a South Salem defender in a game Tuesday, Oct. 20.

The team will only lose three seniors to graduation in June, meaning much of the team will be back in 2016 ready to make another go of it. And Nash already has the girls working on off-season plans.

"We will continue putting the focus on fitness and ball control in the off-season. If the ladies can continue to grow in these two areas as individuals, we will see continued improvement in results next year," he said.

Young Saxons stymie Celtics

An injury-riddled McNary freshman football team fell to 3-4 in the Greater Valley Conference and 3-5 overall after a 36-8 loss to South Salem High School Thursday, Oct. 22.

"These kids have no quit in them," said Ted Anagnos, head coach of the youngest Celtics. "We don't talk about the injuries, but it's been hard to overcome. They'll be a good varsity team in three years."

South started quick in the first quarter with a seven-yard run and two-point conversion for an 8-0 first quarter lead.

In the second quarter south scored on a 20-yard pass and an 11-yard run to extend its lead to 20-0.

McNary drove late in the quarter on some nice runs by Chantz Revis and the passing combination of David Allen to Griffin Oliveira to the South 30-yard line. South then intercepted a pass and ran it back 68 yards for a touchdown and a 28-0 lead at the half.

After the half, South scored on a seven-yard run to make it 36-0. The young Celtics continued to battle and managed to get an eight-yard touchdown run from Tate Parr. Parr also ran in the two-point conversion for the final score.

McNary's offense was led once again by Revis with 82 hard-fought rushing yards. Nigel Harris added 40 yards and Noah Bach had 29. Allen added 56 yards passing, with 47 going to Oliveira on three catches.

Defensively, Bo Working led with eight tackles. Robert Benson added six and Harris was credited with five. Oliveira, Brent Preston and Devyn Schurr recorded four tackles each. Quarterback and defensive back coach George Carter gave credit to Harris for a good game.

"Nigel had his best game of the season," Carter said. "He ran the ball well, completed two passes at quarterback, caught four balls at receiver and played exceptionally well at cornerback on defense. We look forward to big production from him in the future."
