Ring in new year with style, laughs

Keizer Homegrown now offering season six

Time is short for New Year's Eve plans, but here are a few options for last-minute gatherings to ring in the new year and celebrate 2016 this weekend.

- Town & Country Lanes, 3500 River Road N., is hosting a New Year's Eve party starting at 9:30 p.m. Tickets are $25 and include music, three hours of moon-glow bowling, a New Year's countdown and champagne or cider toast, a nacho buffet and raffle drawings.

- Capitol City Theatre is offering one all-ages show and one adults-only show New Year's Eve. The all-ages show kicks off at 7:30 p.m. and should wrap up about 9 p.m., 210 Liberty St. SE, Suite 150. Tickets are $12 and $9 for ages 12 and younger. The 21-and-older show begins at 10:30 p.m. and ends with a complimentary champagne toast at midnight. Tickets are $20. Purchase tickets in advance at capitolcitytheater.com.

- New Year's Eve Dance at Keizer Salem Area Senior Center, 930 Plymouth Drive N.E. Doors open at 7 p.m. Live music by Don and Pat Schuetz with Glen Walker & Lee and Evelyn Easter. Tickets $10.

- If you don't mind a bit of travel, or would like a bit of traditional culture education with your revelry, check out the Native American Rehabilitation Association's annual New Year's Eve

Sobriety Powwow at Portland's Oregon Convention Center, 777 NE Martin Luther King Jr Boulevard. The dry event features drum groups and community dances and is free to the public. 1 p.m. to midnight.

- The festivities go on all night long at Spirit Mountain Casino. Activities include bingo at 7:30 p.m., a wandering magician from 7 to 11:30 p.m.; bucket drummer/dancers at 9, 10 and 11 p.m.; juggler/stiltwalker at 9:30, 10:30 and 11:30 p.m.; Joe Stoddard Band at 9 p.m.; photo booth from 9 to 11:30 p.m.; Rock & Roll Cowboys at 9 p.m.; bead tosses at 9:45, 10:45 and 11:45 p.m.; and confetti cannons and balloon drop at midnight, 27100 Salmon River Highway, Grand Ronde.

- Salem's Riverfront Carousel is offering free rides between noon and 4 p.m. Friday, Jan. 1. Canned food donations to support Marion-Polk Food Share are suggested.

- On Saturday, Jan. 2, C4, The Capitol City Comedy Challenge, takes the stage at 210 Liberty St. SE, Suite 150, in Salem. Six stand-up comedians. Three challenges. One stage. Who's the winner? Audience decides. 9:30 p.m. Tickets are $10, 18 and older only.

Keizer Homegrown Theatre is now offering season tickets.

The season passes are available now at www.keizer-homegrowntheatre.org and cost $40, a savings of $14 over door prices for the four shows each year for which the troupe charges admission. Season tickets can also be purchased by calling 503-375-3278.

The 2016 season is slated to include a revival of last season's Always, Patsy Cline, Time Stands Still, Drop Dead!, Twelfth Night and The Guys.

Purchasers do not have to select specific dates in advance, but can make date-specific reservations at the time of each show using the season pass number.

Twelfth Night is the company's annual Shakespeare in the Park production and will be free to all in attendance.

Tree recycling offered

Keizer Boy Scout Troop 121 will be offering tree recycling Jan. 2-3 and 9-10.

Trees can be dropped off at either of two locations: Keizer U.S. Bank, 5110 River Road N. or the Schoolhouse Square Starbucks, 5001 River Road N.

Pick-up can also be arranged either weekend by calling 503-877-4285 or visiting www.keizertroop121.com.

The suggested donation is $10 for pick-up or $5 for drop-off.

Nominate now for SEC Green Awards

Salem's Straub Environmental Center is looking for nominees in its annual Mid-Valley Green Awards.

The awards honor sustainable practices by both local individuals and businesses and nominations are due by midnight Jan. 18.

Award categories include: recycler of the year; sustainable business of the year; Earth-WISE business of the year; the Green Apple, given to a local educator; green product/service of the year and sustainable winery/brewer of the year.

Full details, including eligibility requirements and nomination forms are available at straubenvironmentalcenter.org.

Pro wrestling at Lions Club

The Keizer Lions Club will host Mid-Valley Pro Wrestling's first-ever event Sunday, Jan. 10.

Ringside seats are $15 and general admission is $10. Doors open at 3:30 p.m. with a 4 p.m. bell time.

A 12-man over-the-top battle royal is planned with the last two wrestlers standing competing for a $1,000 purse in the main event.

The Lions Club is located at 4100 Cherry Ave. N.E. in Keizer.

Volunteers sought for advisory roles at city

The city of Keizer is soliciting applications for volunteers to be considered to serve on the following committees:

- Keizer Points of Interest Committee (two vacancies). The committee was established to identify, authenticate, and memorialize sites of interest located in the Keizer area. Sites to be identified may be of the historical, geographical, botanical, or unusual. The committee meets on the third Tuesday of each month at 5:30 p.m.

- Parks Advisory

Board (one vacancy). The Parks Advisory Board reviews and studies issues that involve development and maintenance of city parks and makes recommendations to the city council. The board meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m.

- Youth liaison/page – Opportunities are currently available to youth for service on various city committees. Please check the city website, www.keizer.org, for more information and to apply.

Nominations are also being accepted for Volunteer of the Quarter. Volunteer applications and Volunteer of the Quarter nominations are available at Keizer Civic Center – City Hall located at 930 Chemawa Road NE, Keizer, or you can request an application be mailed to you by calling city hall at (503) 390-3700. Electronic applications are available on the city website.

Applications and nominations must be received by Wednesday, Jan. 13, to be considered at the Jan. 21 Volunteer Coordinating Committee meeting.
