KHT reviving Always ... Patsy Cline

KEIZERTIMES/Eric A. Howald
Taylor Pawley takes the spotlight as country crooner Patsy Cline in a 2015 production of Always ... Patsy Cline.

In 1961, Louise Seger showed up early for a Patsy Cline show at Houston's Esquire Ballroom.

Seger found in Cline's music a reflection of her own life as a divorced, single mother and became something of a "superfan" in current parlance.

Seger met Cline before the show and the encounter set off a two-year friendship kept alive through phone calls and letters until Cline's death in a plane crash in 1963.

The pair's story is the basis of the play Always ... Patsy Cline, Keizer Homegrown Theatre is bringing back the production, which opens with shows Thursday, Jan. 14 at the Kroc Center, The run continues Jan. 15, 16, 21, 22 and 23 at the same site. Curtain time is 7 p.m. each night. Tickets to all shows are $18.

The show proved to be a hit with audiences when it ran in May 2015.
