A win over South Salem High School Tuesday, Feb. 2, could put the Celtics in a tie for the lead of the Greater Valley Conference.

But, to get there, the Celts will have to overcome Forest Grove High School in a game Friday, Jan. 29. McNary travels to meet the Vikings who played the Celts fast and tough when they first met last month.

"We took away two of their guards who are big shooters, but we may have been a little surprised by their secondary scorers. We made some adjustments that allowed us to dictate the game in the second half," said Ryan Kirch, McNary head coach.

The Celts won the teams' first contest 76-62.

"This time, we have to play better all-around defense and continue to hold their two big scorers," said Harry Cavell, a McNary senior.

The Keizer team completed the first round-robin of the GVC with a win over McMinnville High School 58-20.

The Celts held the Grizzlies scoreless in the first period while running up an 11-point lead. The score was 24-6 at halftime.

It was midway through the third quarter before McMinnville cracked double digits on the scoreboard.

"Defensively we were awesome. Our goal in every game is to hold them to less than 32 and we held them to 20," said Cavell. "Offensively, we didn't score as effectively as we wanted to against their zone, but it's a learning process and we had glimpses of good zone offense."

Celt Junior Mathew Ismay led all scoring with 13 points; Trent Van Cleave put in 13; Chandler Cavell had eight

If McNary beats the Saxons, the two teams will be tied for first in the GVC.

In the McMinnville game, the Celts led 16-4 after the first frame and pushed it to 24-11 by halftime.

"One of the things we wanted to work on was the zone and trapping press. That went well and we got a lot of turnovers and it got better as we went along," said Douth.

The Lady Celts held the Grizzlies to 10 points in the third quarter and six in the fourth to walk away with the win.

"The big thing was to make sure we were focused defensively and I thought the girls were phenomenal.

Especially in the first quarter where McMinnville had trouble getting shots off let alone making any of them," Handley said.

Flores said the team benefited from only playing one game last week.

"It allowed us some time to heal, but Friday proved that we are getting better with every game," she said.

tests of team performance in the run up to district competition. The Celts won three of five dual meets to take fourth.

The Celtics beat Oregon City High School 59-12,

North Bend High School 73-6, and Tualatin High School 44-25. The Keizer team fell to Sprague High School 49-18 in consolation brackets and then narrowly lost to Grants Pass High School, 36-30, for third place in the tournament.

Only two of the Celts emerged from the fray unscathed. Burrows went 4-0 and pinned all of his opponents. Sophomore Brayden Ebbs went 5-0 with three pins, a major decision and a technical fall.

Vincent, Phelps, Kesler and Kyle Bonn all won four out of five matches. Kibbey and Nick Hernandez went 3-2.
