Scholarship offered for med students

Applications are now available for the Salem Hospital Foundation scholarship for half-time or full-time students in medically-related fields of study.

All applicants must live in Marion or Polk County or be a current employee or immediate family member of a current employee at Salem Hospital, must have applied to a college in their field of healthcare study and must have completed all prerequisite classes before applying for this scholarship.

Visit www.salemhealth.org/scholarships and click on the Salem Hospital Foundation Scholarship link. Applications must be postmarked by May 10 to be considered.

Final selections will be announced by June 30. If you have any questions, please contact the Salem Hospital Foundation office at 503-561-5576.

anniversary

Keizer couple Laurel Marie and Forrest Milton Wells celebrated their 50th anniversary Saturday, March 19.

Laurel Raycraft and Forrest Wells met Nov. 22, 1963, the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated. They married on March 19, 1966, at Ashbury United Methodist Church in Hood River.

Laurel, a graduate of the Oregon College of Education, now Western Oregon University, spent her career as a teacher. Forrest, a graduate of the Merritt Davis School of Commerce, was head bookkeeper at Pumilite Block Company.

The couple has three sons, Trevor, Tyler and Trent Wells. Tyler is married to Alana Patterson Wells and they have three children, Andra, Ella and Kianna.

They plan on celebrating the milestone by taking two trips, one to Arizona for baseball's spring training and the other to Hawaii.

College money for Keizer students

Applications are now available for the 2016 Keizer Heritage Foundation scholarships.

The Foundation will award the $1,000 Pearl Langeland Memorial Scholarship, which honors the longtime Keizer teacher and Keizer Heritage board member. Another scholarship of $1,000, or two of $500 each, will also be awarded.

The scholarships are available to current year high school graduates who have lived in Keizer for the past five years or more and who plan to attend a four-year or two-year college or vocational school within one calendar year of award selection.

Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic performance, school and community activities, monetary need, and an accurate and complete application form.

The Keizer Heritage Foundation owns and operates the Keizer Heritage Center.

Applications may be obtained at local high schools, requested by e-mail at heritage@wvi.com or downloaded at www.keizerheritage.org/scholarships.html. Applications must be submitted to the Keizer Heritage office at 980 Chemawa Road N.E. by 5 p.m. on April 1, 2016. They can also be mailed to Keizer Heritage, P.O. 20845, Keizer, OR 97307. For more information contact the Keizer Heritage Center, at 503-393-9660 or heritage@wvi.com.

Applications are also available for three vocational/trade scholarships from Making Keizer Better Foundation. Each scholarship awards $1,000 for continuing education in a trade or vocation.

The Making Keizer Better and the Jan Cline Memorial Scholarships are for students who plan to continue education in electrical, plumbing or one of the recognized trades which can include cosmetology.

The Jerry Bigler Memorial Scholarship is for a student who will continue education in the automotive field.

The scholarships are unlimited and require transcripts, letters of recommendation and several essay questions. A high grade point average is not necessary; financial need will be considered. Applications are available at McNary High School and Making Keizer Better Foundation. The deadline to apply is April 1.

Call the foundation at 503-390-6840 to have information and an application can be e-mailed.
