Cavell named as player of the year

The Salem Sports & Breakfast Club recognized the senior basketball players of the year and the two-time state champion South Salem girls basketball team at its meeting April 1.

Harry Cavell of McNary High School is the senior athlete of the year for boys basketball. Harry, a team captain, played shooting guard for the Celtics. For the season, he averaged 16 points, eight rebounds, four assists and two steals per game.

Harry was named first team all-Greater Valley Conference as a junior and was the GVC Player of the Year as a senior. He has been selected to play in this year's Oregon vs. Washington game.

Fundraisers on tap in April for MHS senior night

Two fundraisers are taking place to help fund the annual McNary Senior Grad Party.

One is a McNary Seniors vs. Teachers basketball game. Billed as a fight to the bitter end, this event takes place Friday, April 8 starting at 7 p.m. in the McNary High School gym.

MHS seniors will be challenging teachers in a basketball showdown. Tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for students and free for children age 5 and under.

The other fundraiser is the annual geranium sales, which end on April 15.

The all-night drug- and alcohol-free senior grad party takes place June 10 at the Battlecreek Courthouse Athletic Club.
