Lawrence Vern Monagon

March 15, 1955 - Feb. 25, 2016

Monagon

Lawrence "Larry" Vern Monagon, 60, was born to Leslie Lewis Monagon and Gladie Huntley Monagon in Johnson City, New York, on March 15, 1955. He moved to Phoenix, Ariz. with his family when he was three years old. From there he moved to Lyle, Wash. where he spent his preteen years and later moved to the Beaverton/Aloha area where he graduated from Aloha High School.

Larry continued his education at Oregon College of Education and received his Bachelor of Science degree in social sciences in 1978. In 1981, he received his Master of Science degree at the University of Portland.

Larry met his wife Dawn while he was attending college and they were married in Beaverton in 1979. Together they raised kids in the Beaverton area. In 1996 he moved to Keizer to craft an olive business. Larry continued to work full time for Multnomah County until his retirement.

Larry went on to a 30-plus year career in corrections. Even after retirement he maintained his ties and continued to work on a temporary or part-time basis in the corrections field.

Larry grew up with six siblings, sisters Cindy and Sheila, and brothers Ivin (deceased), Lester, Kenny and Eugene. His parents passed before him.

He never backed down from new adventures such as scuba diving, snorkeling, bee keeping, growing olives or raising teenagers. If he was traveling and saw something interesting, he pulled over to read the road signs.

He liked to visit the museum, or sit and visit with the locals. He loved to have kids share with him the joy of camping, fishing, hunting and hiking. He appreciated wildlife and liked to arrange a yearly feeding and viewing of the elk at the Jewel Wildlife Refuge for family and friends to enjoy.

Larry volunteered with many organizations including Oregon Hunter Education, where he was selected as Oregon Instructor of the Year in 1995, Fishing Education, Keizer Grange, Keizer Elks and St. Vincent School.

The family would suggest that if you are considering a memorial donation, you can direct it to St. Vincent de Paul School in Salem.

All family and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Celebration of Life for Larry on May 1, 2016, from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Keizer Elks Lodge.

Farnstrom Mortuary is handling arrangements. Memories and condolences at FarnstromMortuary.com.
