

Blood drive at St. Edward

American Red Cross will hold a blood drive at St. Edward Catholic Church on Thursday, May 26.

Donors can give blood between 12:30 and 5:30 p.m.; the drive will take place in the Parish Hall, 5303 River Road N.

To schedule an appointment call Gaye McDougall at 503-390-1876. Blood draws take about one hour.

Donors can sign up for Rapidpass that can save up to 15 minutes per draw. Learn more about Rapidpass at redcrossblood.org/RapidPass.

KHF awards scholarships

The Keizer Heritage Foundation recently announced the winners of their 2016 scholarships.

Blake Gerstner (McNary High School) was chosen for the $1,000 Pearl Langeland Scholarship. Miranda Glennie (Blanchet Catholic School) was awarded a $1,000 Keizer Heritage Foundation scholarship.

Gerstner was very involved in school activities as well as in the community. He served as McNary's student body vice president, was involved in planning school spirit events, various student leadership activities, German Club (and was an exchange student in Stuttgart, Germany), Science Club, Honor Society and participated in wrestling and lacrosse all four years. His involvement with Boy Scouts of America led him to become an Eagle Scout, his project was to refurbish the bridge at Bob Newton Park. Gerstner plans to attend Chemeketa Community College with a goal of being a Certified Public Accountant with an emphasis in management.

The $1,000 Foundation scholarship winner, Glennie, was heavily involved in business activities at Blanchet and was president of the school's DECA chapter, a business club. She received a National DECA Leadership Honor and placed in competition at state marketing and finance DECA events. She was captain of the varsity track and soccer teams. Glennie started her own charity called "one More Chemo Down," in which she makes bags with activities inside for chemotherapy patients while they undergo their treatments. Glennie plans to attend Oregon State University with a double major in business finance and marketing.
