McNary scribes release new book

The McNary High School Write Club released its newest anthology of work Thursday, May 27.

The book, titled Questionable Search Histories of the Researching Writer, includes work by junior Emily Dolph, sophomores Emma Snyder and Parker Kehret, and freshmen Michael Hitchcock and Hanna Lawson.

The stories and poems included in the book run the gamut from science fiction to comedy and right back to fantasy. There's even a co-authored piece that's an ode to both Edgar Allan Poe's The Raven and the intensity of finals week.

Copies of Questionable Histories, along with the previous volumes of the club's work, are $5 and available at the Keizertimes office, 142 Chemawa Road N.E. The paper's managing editor, Eric Howald, is the volunteer advisor to the club.
