

Civil War battles move to Powerland

After 25 years at Willamette Mission State Park, the Northwest Civil War Council's annual Fourth of July weekend event is moving to Antique Powerland in Brooks. In addition to the camps, battles and demonstrations that have always been part of a NCWC reenactment, attendees will now get to explore the numerous museums and exhibits that are the Powerland campus. Events are planned daily July 2 through 4 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is $12 for adults, those younger than 12 get in free.

Keizer City Councilor Dennis Koho tosses the ceremonial first pitch in the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes' season opener Friday, June 17. Koho threw out the first pitch in 1996 when the Volcanoes came to Keizer.
