Cops close book on mysterious death

By ERIC A. HOWALD
Of the Keizertimes

A former Keizer man was arrested on charges of criminally negligent homicide Thursday, July 8.

Andrew R. Modine, 35, was arrested in Bend in connection with the death of his brother in September 2015. Keizer Det. Ben Howden was lead investigator in the case and arrested Modine with the assistance of the Bend Police Department.

On Sept. 5, KPD officers were summoned the 900 block of Keizer's Ventura Avenue North around 8:30 p.m. where they found Thomas Modine laying in the roadway unconscious and having sustained serious injuries. He died six days later.

At the time, police officers determined a 1950 Chevrolet pick-up was involved. A.

Andrew Modine

Modine was interviewed in regard to the incident, but no charges were filed at the time. A subsequent investigation determined T. Modine had been riding as a passenger in the truck while it was driven by his brother.

"Both brothers were headed to Thomas Modine's residence on Ventura Avenue," said KPD Deputy Chief Jeff Kuhns.

KPD Sgt. David LeDay, a crash reconstructionist, determined that T. Modine fell from the pick-up as A. Modine drove the vehicle north on Shoreline Drive North and made a left turn to travel west on Ventura Avenue.

Kuhns said T. Modine fell out of the passenger's seat.

"There are no back seats. There actually was not even a true bed on this vehicle as it had been modified at some point in time. It appears he fell out the of the door as the vehicle rounded the corner," Kuhns said.

A probable cause statement alleges A. Modine was driving under the influence of intoxicants when the incident occurred.

A. Modine was lodged at the Marion County Correctional Facility where he was charged with one count of criminally negligent homicide and one count of driving under the influence of intoxicants. He was released after posting $25,000 bail.

Anyone with information about T. Modine's death is asked to contact Howden at 503-390-3713, ext. 3525.

Blockbuster bids adieu
It was the last brick and mortar video store in city limits and they closed abruptly this week. Blockbuster didn't return a phone call for comment.

10 YEARS AGO

City will sell land to pay for city hall
The Keizer City Council is moving ahead with plans to construct a $13.4 million civic center, opting to pay for the construction by selling off city land rather than seeking voter approval of a bond measure in later months.

15 YEARS AGO

Torch sets hedge ablaze
A man using a propane torch to burn weeds in his lawn set fire to an arbor vitae hedge at his North Elizabeth Street home.

20 YEARS AGO

Council limits retail, calls for hotel at I-5
The Keizer City Council decided to allow just 11 acres of retail development among the 168 acres along the freeway. Property owners had wanted 30 acres. Retail stores would be confined to 11 acres. None of the stores could be larger than 50,000 square feet. Locking out major "box" stores. A major convention hotel would have to go somewhere on the 168 acres.

GRASSROOTS GOVERNMENT

The Keizer Traffic Safety, Bikeways and Pedestrian Committee had its most recent meeting June 9. Here's what was discussed:

- Keizer resident Rhonda Rich appealed to the committee seeking signage or some sort of crosswalk designation between the dog park at Keizer Rapids park and The Big Toy due to increased pedestrian traffic traversing the Walsh Way, which leads to the boat ramp.
- Committee member Pat Fisher shared an email from Nicole Carlson requesting pedestrian safety audit on River Road North. The audit would help determine critical areas for pedestrian traffic. Keizer Street Division Manager Mike Griffin said a similar study is planned for the 2017-18 fiscal year.
- Griffin reported on two projects on the horizon:

sidewalks along Delight Street North and a potential pedestrian crossing on Lockhaven at Celtic Way North.

Regarding Delight Street improvements, options include widening the shoulder for a pedestrian path or a separated path along the asphalt. The recommended improvement will be scheduled for the 2018-19 fiscal year.

A pedestrian crossing at Celtic Way would require a $2,500 warrant study before further action. Installing a crosswalk would cost about $15,000 for flashers, one each for east and westbound lanes, and $1,200 for crosswalk striping.
