It was Back to School night on Thursday, Aug. 18, as the Keizer Heritage Center marked the centennial of the building which started as a Keizer School.

The Keizer Heritage Museum, the Keizer Community Library and the Keizer Art Association and its Enid Joy Mount Gallery each had events.

Attendees received a report card that was 'graded' by groups throughout the building. Completed cards were entered in a drawing for prizes.

The final celebration of the building's centennial will be held on Saturday, Nov. 12, with an all-class reunion.

Other upcoming Keizer Heritage Center events include a Halloween open house on Thursday, Oct. 20, and a Christmas celebration on Dec. 15.

The Keizer Heritage Center is located at 980 Chemawa Rd. NE.
