

MHS band collecting cans door-to-door Sept. 10

Members of the McNary High School band will spread throughout Keizer neighborhoods on Saturday, Sept. 10, to collect redeemable cans and bottles as a fundraiser to the benefit the band program.

Teams of band members will go door to door seeking donations of cans and bottles that can be redeemed. They will also accept cash donations. Keizerites who will not be home on Sept. 10 can choose to leave their cans and bottles on the front porch or in front of the garage.

Band day is overseen by the McNary Band Boosters who will set up a station at the high school parking lot to accept and sort donations from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.; they will accept donations at this site as well from people who want to bring their donated cans and bottles themselves.

There will be a collection site at the Creekside Shopping Center from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Band Day is one of two major fundraisers from the band held each year. Proceeds fund band transportation to competitions, music, cleaning of marching uniforms, band camp and to hire professional musicians to hold seminars for band members.

"We rely heavily on the generosity of the community," said Booster president Lynnea Masee-Lane.

For information or questions contact Masee-Lane at 503-508-3391 or visit mcnaryhsband.org.

Ready for back to school

Claggett Creek Middle School teachers spent the week before school starts Aug. 29-Sept. 2 in AVID breakout groups to prepare for the upcoming school year. Pictured, Donna Wyatt, eighth grade health and AVID teacher, gives a demonstration establishing clear expectations that lead to safe and productive classroom environments on the first days of school.
