AUVINEN: 'We have a good group of kids'

McNary senior A.J. Jhonk, who missed last season with a torn ACL in his left knee, carries the ball for the Celtics during a Blue Day scrimmage on Saturday, Aug. 20.

Senior Brendan Van Voorhis will lead the receiving corp as well as play in the secondary.

"He's got a great skill set," Auvinen said. "He can run, he's got good vision, he's smart, so he's going to be a kid that we depend on quite a bit. We'd like for him to play every snap."

Van Voorhis, a track athlete who runs the 100, 200 and 400 and has a scholarship offer from West Point, enjoys playing on both sides of the ball.

"I like stopping people and making tackles but I also like scoring," he said.

Senior Xavier Martinez and junior Jakoby Doke both return at linebacker and could also see time on offense as well this season.

Seniors Sam Farr and Caleb Kiefluk-Yates are back on the offensive line. Brent Olsen, a junior, has started at tight end, but will move to tackle this season. Sophomore Josh Schmeltzer could also make his way on to the offensive line.

"He's a sophomore academically but he's got a big ole body on him," Auvinen said. "He moves his feet well. He works hard and is potentially a starting guard for us."

MHS has two seniors who could get snaps at quarterback—Tyler Ellertson and Josiah Gilbert.

"Quarterbacks are very different," Auvinen said. "Josiah is big and strong, got a very good arm, not much experience at quarterback. He's been more of a natural receiver. He's definitely an athlete. He's played more receiver than quarterback but he's got a great arm. He's the baseball teams No. 1 pitcher, wants to pitch in college. Tyler has been quarterback all throughout. He's backed up kids and last year he got a chance to shine with the JV. He's probably got more experience, he's got good
