

Intervention leads to arrest for man in crisis

A man armed with a short-barrel shotgun and hoping for "suicide by cop" was arrested by Keizer Police officers early Sunday, Oct. 23.

Police responded to a domestic disturbance call about 4 a.m. in the 1900 block of Gable Court Northeast. The 9-1-1 operator told officers that she heard a man screaming at a female on an open line, and learned the man had a gun as the scene unfolded.

Four officers responded to the home and encountered a man with a short-barreled shotgun exiting the residence. Officer gave verbal commands to drop the weapon and the man complied.

He was taken into custody without further incident and transported to Marion County Correctional Facility where he was charged with unlawful possession of a short-barreled firearm, a Class B felony.

The distraught man told investigating officers that personal troubles led to him contemplating suicide. He had taken up the weapon in hope of making himself a threat, but that he had to walk by his daughter in the family's living room to leave the house. Walking by his child made him reconsider and he exited the house just as police were arriving on the scene.

"This is one of those incidents that could have resulted in the officers justifiably using deadly physical force against the subject had any of them felt they or their lives of others were in imminent danger of serious physical injury or death, but thankfully the suspect immediately complied with their verbal commands to drop the firearm and no force had to be used at all. This is the best outcome possible," said Deputy Chief Jeff Kuhns, of the Keizer Police Department.

WOMAN RESISTS ARREST AFTER WANDERING INTO TRAFFIC

About 8 a.m. Friday, Oct. 21, Keizer Deputy Police Chief Jeff Kuhns responded to a report of a female entering the Avamere Court at Keizer and wandering around the facility. The caller was concerned the woman was intoxicated.

As he arrived, Kuhns spotted the woman pacing outside the building and talking to herself. He suspected she was under the influence of drugs or alcohol and possibly experiencing a mental crisis.

While waiting for a uniformed officer to arrive, the woman walked across River Road North, against a traffic signal, and into the north-bound lane of traffic.

Officer Dan Carroll arrived on the scene and tried to engage the woman in conversation from the parking lot of Willamette Valley Bank. She continued a wandering path across the road and into the parking lot of Smoker Friendly where Kuhns said she appeared to try to gain entry into two vehicles.

Kuhns and Carroll were able to detain the woman as she tried to walk behind the convenience store and she was taken into custody after a struggle. No injuries were reported.

Kelsey Rose Zemp, 25, of Salem, was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.
