

HUNTER,

"The reality is Sydney is one of the hardest workers I've ever had the opportunity of coaching," Handley said.

"She's the best pure athlete I've ever coached, there's no question, but she's also the kid that you don't see behind the door, she's the one putting up shots by herself. She's working extra hours in the gym and she's not doing that because the crowd is going to see it or the coaches want to see it, she understands that elite athletes have to put in the work. What she's getting is deserved. She wasn't just born into it. She worked her tail off for it. The fact that she is signing D-I today, it really shouldn't be a surprise to anybody who's had the opportunity to coach with her, to play with her or just to see her perform."

Hunter, who will be a team captain for the third time this season, is also a leader.

"She's very supportive of her teammates," Handley said. "She's the first to criticize herself. She understands when she makes a mistake and if I were to say that Sydney had a flaw, I would say sometimes she's too hard on herself. She expects perfection every time she goes out there. As a head coach, that's a dream. That's exactly what you want to see out of your best players, is they set the tone, not only how they treat their teammates but the expectations they hold themselves to.

"I could never ask for a better representative for our program, for our school, for our community. Her teammates would say the same thing. San Diego is really lucky to be getting her."

San Diego plays in the West Coast Conference with the likes of Gonzaga, Saint Mary's and Santa Clara.

The Lady Toreros finished 25-8 last season, which was the second most wins in program history, and lost to Michigan in the Sweet 16 round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament.

McNary senior Sydney Hunter celebrated her signing on Wednesday, Nov. 9 with family in the school's library. KEIZERTIMES/Derek Wiley up his own 11-yard touchdown reception and then another in the final minute of the game to seal a 30-27 victory.

"I think he (Van Voorhis) matured quite a bit this year as far as his body goes, especially," Auvinen said. "In the past he's kind of been a track kid playing football and this year he became a football player. He was really big for us offensively. He put up huge numbers and helped us spread the field out."

Quarterback Josiah Gilbert was voted onto the second team. The McNary senior completed 125 of 240 passes for 1,988 yards, 22 touchdowns and 11 interceptions.

He also rushed for 494 yards and nine touchdowns.

Lucas Garvey, who finished his junior season with nine interceptions, was second team cornerback and voted honorable mention at running back, where he rushed for 533 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior Xavier Martinez, who played through a broken bone in his hand, was picked to the second team at linebacker.

Caleb Kiefiuk-Yates, a senior defensive line, was voted honorable mention. At safety, freshman Junior Walling was also honorable mention.

On the offensive line, sophomore Joshua Schmeltzer was selected to the second team at guard and junior Brent Olsen was honorable mention at tackle.

Senior Josh Benson, who

caught three touchdown passes against West Albany, was an honorable mention selection at receiver. West Salem quarterback Jared Oliver was voted GVC

Offensive Player of the Year and Sprague lineman Teagan Qutoriano was named Defensive Player of the Year. Coach of the Year went to West Salem's Shawn Stanley.

COBURN,

Coburn said kids always ask if they are his favorites but it's difficult to top the two teams his daughters, Sarah and Katie, played on in the late 90s.

"They were both on very good teams," Coburn said.

"They didn't lose any games while they were here and having all those kids at my house as friends made them special teams to be around."

Coburn's team went undefeated in league play this season, which has become a common occurrence at Whiteaker.

Coburn, who turns 60 this month, doesn't know how much longer he'll coach.

"I take every year one at a time," he said. "I know I have a few more years of teaching and as long as I'm teaching, I'll be coaching. It's been a good ride though. I've enjoyed every minute of it. I feel very fortunate to be in the city I'm in because I get great kids and great families to work with. The city of Keizer is something special."
