Neva Irene Norris

June 11, 1932 - November 15, 2016

Neva Irene Norris passed away Tuesday, Nov. 15, 2016. She was 84 years old.

She was born June 11, 1932, to Alfonso and Clara Sanchez in San Francisco, Calif. She became the eldest of three siblings.

Neva grew up in California and married LaFoy Norris on Oct. 16, 1955. Together they had four children: Neal Norris of Watsonville, Calif., Faron Norris of Elgin, S.C., LaVern Atkins of Keizer, and Loren Norris of Gold Beach, Ore.

After the death of her husband in 1995, Neva moved to Oregon where she resided with their only daughter. She stayed there for more than 21 years until her death.

In her later years, she suffered from Alzheimer's among other health problems, but still retained her cheerful demeanor with a smile on her face, a small giggle to her voice and a cheerful hello to all who spoke with her.

She is survived by her sister Nelda Benedict, her four children, seven grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren as well as many nieces and nephews.

Support homeless students at Christmas party

The Salem Association of Realtors Community Fund and the Salem-Keizer school's STEP program are hosting their 27th annual Children's Christmas Party.

The party will be held at the Salem Evangelical Church, 455 Locust Street N.E., on Dec. 10.

Events at the party will include gifts, lunch, crafts, giving store and a visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus. The event is funded completely by donations.

The STEP program provides educational support that aides students without a home, or in transition, to achieve academic success. They offer services such as transportation, school supplies, access to academic support, and referrals to community resources.

The Salem Association of Realtors Community Fund was established as a charitable organization with goals of breaking the cycle of homelessness and provide opportunities for affordable housing, to serve disadvantaged children and families in crisis, and to contribute to the livability of the community and build a sense of pride neighborhoods. All of the proceeds go back to the local community.

HEATING & AIR CONDITIONING

CleanEnergyComfort.com

Anyone who suffered through this summer's hot days would be excused for thinking of adding a cooling system to their home for the future. They would also be excused for wanting the most efficient heating system in their home. It's important to live comfortably; it's also important to be money smart.

Clean Energy Comfort, which recently relocated to Keizer from Salem is a leading provider of home heating and cooling systems. Their focus is to help customers achieve a maximum comfort level in their home, while minimizing energy usage. Company president Chris Romine, vice president Gayle Tunnell and their expert technicians achieve this through properly sizing a comfort system to match the needs of the home, and then tailoring the system to meet the desires of the homeowner.

Their mission is to be at the forefront of the HVAC industry by continually implementing new ideas and products, and by keeping their employees up to date with continued education and training. They will maintain sustainability, and continue to serve their valued customers for many years to come.

The company approaches their business from an educational perspective. They help their customers make the best decision for their homes. They aim to quickly take care of their customers needs and provide high-rated products that their customers can trust.

The business started in Salem in early 2011 and are now enjoying their large space at 3816 River Road.

If you want to be comfortable in your home when it comes to heating and cooling call the experts at Clean Energy Comfort at 503-304-1320 or visit them online at cleanenergycomfort.com.
