

Keizer man charged with murder

A Keizer man has been charged with murder for allegedly stabbing another man after his car crashed into a tree.

Salem Police officers responded to a report of a single vehicle crashed into a tree at the intersection of Liberty Street Southeast and Superior Street Southeast in Salem about 1:30 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 28. Officers found a Chevrolet Trail Blazer that had run into a tree and the driver, 32-year-old Andrew Ramon, of Gervais, deceased inside.

An autopsy revealed that Ramon had died from multiple stab wounds and not as a result of the crash.

An investigation into the circumstances surrounding the incident found that Ramon had been involved in an altercation with 26-year-old Darnell Edward Harris of Keizer the previous day.

Police officials have not said how Harris came upon the scene of the crash, but allege that he approached the vehicle and stabbed Ramon.

In addition to a murder charge, Harris faces one count of unlawful use of a firearm stemming from an incident earlier in the day and two counts of tampering with a witness for attempting to induce false testimony from two associates.

Harris is being held without bail at the Marion County Correctional Facility. His next scheduled court date, an arraignment, is Monday, Dec. 12, at 8:30 a.m.

The investigation into the incident is ongoing.
