

Santa, Snowman come to Keizer

KEIZERTIMES/Derek Wiley
Cameron and Miles Hoover were two of the first children in line to visit Santa on Saturday, Dec. 3 at Volcanoes Stadium.

City volunteers appointed

The Keizer City Council approved the following appointments to city advisory boards at its meeting Monday, Dec. 5:

- Maritza Gonzalez was named to the Keizer Public Art Commission. Her term began with the appointment and will extend through June 2019.

- Joe Tilman and Catharina Gaynor will join the Keizer Parks and Recreation Advisory board as new members beginning Dec. 31 and continue through December 2019. Dylan Juran was re-pointed for a second term, his appointment will expire at the same time.

- Kathy Lincoln and Hersch Sangster were reappointed to the Traffic, Bikeways and Pedestrian Committee. They will serve through December 2019.

Holiday concert Dec. 14

The Keizer Community Band will perform its 3rd Annual Holiday Concert Wednesday, Dec. 14, at Keizer Civic Center, 930 Chemawa Road N.E., at 7 p.m.

The free concert will feature the Keizer Community Band, directed by Michael Koenig.

The 45-member Keizer Community band is made up of volunteer musicians from Keizer, Salem and surrounding communities.

The family friendly concert will feature carols, holiday favorites and a special sing-along finale.

City Dance Theater delivered two performances of The Snowman's Dance in the Ken Collins Theater at McNary High School on Saturday, Dec. 3.

The show, in its 11th year, featured 165 kids, ages 2-18, from all over Salem-Keizer doing ballet, tap, jazz, hip hop, lyrical and contemporary dance while playing everything from tapping reindeer to hip hopping Santas to baby snowflakes.
