

Man charged with assault in domestic disturbance

Keizer police arrested a man after he allegedly menaced and assaulted his girlfriend on Tuesday Dec. 6.

Keizer Police Department officers were summoned to the 1400 block of Golden Lane North at 9:16 p.m. on the report of a fight between a man and woman. They found the woman still at the address when they arrived, but the man had departed.

During the investigation, officers developed probable cause that the man had menaced and assaulted his girlfriend. They suspected the victim had a broken arm, but that was found not to be the case after a visit to Salem Health.

The suspect was identified as Jeffrey Ray Kellogg, 31, of Keizer. He was later found at another Keizer location and arrested without incident.

He was taken to the Marion County Correctional Facility where he was charged with fourth-degree assault, physical harassment and interfering with making a police report.

Clackamas man charged with meth possession

Keizer police charged a Clackamas man with possession of methamphetamine, carrying a concealed weapon, giving false information to a police officer and being a felon in possession of a weapon stemming from a trespassing complaint at the Keizer Station Lowe's Home Improvement Wednesday, Dec. 7.

Officers were called to the store when an employee reported the man was at the customer service counter trying to return possible stolen property. The employee told officers the man had twice previously stolen items from Lowe's and then returned them for cash without a receipt and wanted to pursue trespassing charges this time around.

Officers made contact with the suspect and found him in possession of a glass pipe containing methamphetamine and a spring-loaded pocket knife. The man gave a false name to officers who learned his true identity after fingerprints positively identified him the following day.

Christopher Neal Ash, 47, of Clackamas, was taken to the Marion County Correctional Facility upon his arrest.

Drunk driver found slumped over wheel

On Sunday, Dec. 11, Keizer police responded to the 2000 block of Allendale Way Northeast to investigate an illegally parked vehicle.

The responding officer found a black 1997 Audi parked in the roadway blocking several driveways and a man slumped over the steering wheel. Police allege that the Audi struck at least two cars in the neighborhood before coming to a stop.

The driver, 23-year-old Sebastian Reyes, of Salem, was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants and criminal mischief.

He was taken to Marion County Correctional Facility.
