Reception Saturday for new KAA show

The Keizer Art Association will host an Artist's Reception for its new show Pacific Northwest Saturday, Jan. 7.

The reception begins at 2 p.m. and the public is invited. Awards will be presented during the reception.

The new exhibit features representations and takes on life in the Pacific Northwest in all mediums.

Artists who are exhibiting works are encouraged to attend.

ABOVE and BELOW: A crew from Wiltse's Towing had to hook a Honda Civic three times before it was finally able to pull the car out of the Willamette River Wednesday, Dec. 28.

The vehicle belonged to Gonzalez's parents and it took him until the next day to fess up to what had happened, Kuhns said.

By the time towing crews arrived a week later, the roof of the car was barely visible under the surface of the water.

The car slipped back into the water twice before it was finally pulled from the river.

Seussical shows to benefit Pentacle

Pentacle Theatre will stage Seussical the Musical as its 2017 winter fund raiser with performances this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Historic Elsinore Theatre.

Seussical is a family musical centered on two Dr. Seuss books, Horton Hears a Who and Horton Hatches the Egg. The show has music by Stephen Flaherty and lyrics by Lynn Ahren who book wrote the book for the musical.

Almost 50 actors, singers and dancers will bring to life some of Dr. Seuss's most popular characters including The Cat in the Hat, Gertrude McFuzz, Mayzie the Bird and the microscopic Who's. The entire production is under the direction of Pentacle veteran Robert Salberg.

Performances are 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 6 and Saturday, Jan. 7 with a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday, Jan. 8. General admission tickets are $30 for adults and $20 for kids under the age of 18. Tickets are available at the Elsinore Theatre box office at 170 High St. S.E. or at any TicketsWest outlet at Safeway stores.

Proceeds from Seussical will benefit Pentacle's operating fund for the eight shows in the 2017 season. For information visit pentacletheatre.org.

Lemonade Day slated for May 20

Keizer-Salem's 2017 Lemonade Day has been set for Saturday, May 20.

The one-day event, organized by the Salem-Keizer Education Foundation, is a region-wide activity that teaches kids about entrepreneurship by creating, developing and running their own lemonade stand. Kids can choose to do a stand individually or as part of a team.

Last year there were almost 200 stands dotting the Keizer-Salem area.

As designed, proceeds from a lemonade stand are divided equally between an education fund, donation to a charity and spending money.

SKEF will release more information in March.

Behind the wheel there is no such thing as a small distraction.
