City council approves public art for roundabout

By ERIC A. HOWALD Of the Keizertimes

The possibility of placing public art in the roundabout at Chemawa Road Northeast and Verda Lane Northeast took a giant leap forward at the Keizer City Council meeting Monday, Feb. 6.

The city council approved the placement of a public art pad in the roundabout, at the request of the Keizer Public Art Commission (KPAC), with a 6-0 vote. Councilor Kim Freeman was absent.

While there were some reservations on the council, Mayor Cathy Clark was most vocal.

"I have tremendous concerns with the functionality given that this roundabout is on an angle. It relieved a tremendous bottleneck and created safety. I have reservations about putting anything there that could compromise the function," Clark said.

Earlier in the evening, Lore Christopher, a former mayor and current member of KPAC, addressed the issue

Community Development Director Nate Brown said that while he understood the concerns about the roundabout functions, the addition of public art might deter some bad behavior.

"People can go through at a rapid rate of speed and if we re-channel that visibility it may provide a benefit," Brown said.

cessfully disarmed and took into custody a man who was allegedly suffering a mental crisis Wednesday, Feb. 1.

About 4:30 p.m., a man flagged down a passerby in the 5400 block of River Road North saying his son had a gun and was "having a mental breakdown." The man then fled the area as his son approached. The caller reported the suspect was last seen entering an apartment complex in the 600 block of Lockhaven Drive N.E.

Officer David Babcock arrived on the scene and found the suspect, later identified as Andrew Isaac Espinoza, 36, at the entrance to the apartment complex and confronted him.

The man began to back away and refused to cooperate. He made motion toward his pocket and was told not to do so, wrote Babcock in a pocket, officers brought him to the ground while he continued to resist arrest.

After placing Espinoza in custody, the firearm was found to have been stolen and a methamphetamine pipe was found in his possession. While interviewing

the father, detectives

learned that Espinoza displayed the gun to his father and demanded to be driven to an undisclosed location.

He allegedly told his father that "there was a round chambered and maybe I should just end it all."

Espinoza has been charged with unlawful use of a weapon, menacing, theft, resisting arrest, possession of methamphetamine and being a felon in possession of a firearm by the Marion County District Attorney's Office. Espinoza's bail was set at $40,000.
