Three Keizer Youth Basketball Association teams won championships on Sunday, Feb. 12.

After easily winning their pool play games 38-8 and 74-16, the seventh grade Celts defeated the Lady Bulldogs 60-11 in the semifinals and then Cascade 34-32 to win the Clash in Keizer.

The seventh grade boys, coached by Marty Vaughn, also went 4-0 to win the championship. The Celts defeated Run and Gun 45-13 and Perrydale 50-26 in pool play.

They then beat another KYBA team, 38-18, in the semifinals and the Bulldogs 46-40 in the title game.

The sixth grade girls, coached by Jamie Vasas, won all four of their games by double digits. After blowing out the Lady Bulldogs 61-7, KYBA topped Klamath Falls 36-16.

The Celts then defeated Oregon City 59-17 and Klamath Falls again 38-26.

KYBA's eighth grade boys got to the finals by throttling Sheridan 59-19 and Mt. Angel 52-26 in pool play.

The Celts then topped the Bulldogs 66-42 but finished second to the Bulldog Warriors, falling 74-41 in the championship game.

Keizer's eighth grade girls defeated Mt. Angel 43-28 to place third in the gold bracket. West Linn topped West Albany 66-39 to win the championship.

Forty-six teams in fifth through eighth grades played in the Clash in Keizer, beginning with pool play games on Saturday, Feb. 11.

Keizer Youth Basketball Association eighth graders Bella Walker, left, and Gabriel Martinez shoot the ball during games played at McNary High School on Sunday, Feb. 12. The girls placed third in the tournament. The boys finished second.

Lady Celts fall to South Salem

File

Abigail Hawley had nine points against South Salem

Of the Keizertimes

McNary couldn't knock off the defending Greater Valley Conference champs, falling to South Salem 67-34 at home on Tuesday, Feb. 14.

The Lady Celts trailed just 27-22 at halftime but were outscored 15-7 in the third quarter and then 25-5 in the fourth.

Abigail Hawley led McNary with nine points. Sydney Hunter and Paige Downer each had eight.

The Lady Celts also dropped a non-league game, 45-42, to Grants Pass on Friday, Feb. 10.

Downer led MHS with 10 points, five rebounds and four assists.

Despite fouling out, Kailey Doust had 10 points and five rebounds.

Hawley added eight points and Anita Lao led the defense with four steals.

Hunter finished with six points to go along with 10 rebounds.

"It's unfortunate because Wyatt has done a lot of good things for himself over the years and he deserves a good district tournament and a good state tournament. One thing I do know, given everything, he'll do a good job making the best of it."

At 132 pounds, senior Sean Burrows hopes to improve on his fourth place finish at districts a year ago and senior Carlos Vincent (160) is looking forward to competed at districts after missing last year's tournament with an injury.

At 120 pounds, Enrique Vincent also placed at districts last year but the rest of the Celtics lineup is inexperienced.

"Most importantly we're going to be gaining experience," coach Ebbs said. "We're going to be taking a lot of young kids to that tournament and they need to get that experience and they need to come back next year and grow. So when we get those (young) kids in that tournament, everything we do is a win. We're going to smile, pat them on the back and work hard and fight. And when they come back next year, we're going to have higher expectations."

Wrestling starts Friday at noon.

Semifinals and consolation rounds will take place on Saturday beginning at 10 a.m.

Third through six place matches are scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. followed by finals at 4:30.

The top four in each weight class advance to the state tournament, which is the following weekend, Feb. 24-25, at Memorial Coliseum in Portland.
