Man stops for cigarette mid-flee attempt

About 10:38 a.m. on Friday, April 14, Officer Andrew Cowan responded to a report of a driving complaint in which a witness was following a car with a flat tire traveling south on River Road North.

The witness followed the black Mitsubishi Lancer from Brooklake Road Northeast until it pulled into the 76 Station at 5137 River Road North. By the time the driver stopped, the flat tire was throwing sparks when the rims came in contact with the road.

McCowan and Officer Dan Kelley pulled into the parking lot shortly after the suspect vehicle and saw the driver run behind Growl Movement where he stopped to light a cigarette.

The man was asked about the flat tire and detained in handcuffs. Further investigation linked him to a hit-and-run in the 10300 block of River Road North where it appeared the vehicle had crashed into a culvert and decorative barrel.

D'Mitri Jamal Laney, 28, of Salem, was arrested and charged with criminal mischief, failure to perform the duties of a driver when property is damaged, driving under the influence of intoxicants and giving false information to a police officer.

In addition to local charges, Laney was found to have an outstanding warrant in Clackamas County for failure to appear. He was transported to the Marion County Correctional Facility.

DIRECTED PATROL PAYS OFF IN KEIZER STATION

A Keizer police officer, acting on observed crime patterns, ended up chasing down a man he suspected of committing a crime near Lowe's in Keizer Station.

About noon on Friday, April 14, Officer Jeremy Worledge was proactively patrolling the Keizer Station area based on previous calls regarding shoplifting crimes committed in the shopping center. Worledge spotted a man squatting behind a lawn mower outside Lowe's and acting suspiciously.

Worledge continued watching the man as he made his way to a maroon car. Worledge noted that the front and rear license plates on the vehicle were mismatched and both appeared to have tape on them. Suspecting that new plates had been taped over old ones, Worledge parked his car and approached the man in the vehicle.

As he asked the suspect about the plates, the man told Worledge, "Someone else did that." The man then put his car in gear and drove away rapidly. The ensuing pursuit wound its way to Portland Road Northeast from Chemawa Road Northeast to Kale Street Northeast before ending in a driveway on Cordon Road Northeast.

By that time, several other officers had joined in the chase and the suspect was taken into custody without further incident.

Gary Phillip Johnson, 39, was arrested and charged attempting to elude an officer and reckless driving. After the arrest, Keizer police officials learned Johnson was already on probation for attempting to elude an officer and his license had been suspended.

MAN TRIES CONFISCATING PIPE WHILE HANDCUFFED, IN PATROL CAR

On Thursday, April 12, at 7:30 p.m., Officer Scott Bigler was transporting a suspect to the Marion County Correctional Facility after an arrest for driving while suspended.

Prior to transporting 45-year-old David Ryan Bates, of Keizer, Bigler performed a pat-down and suspected the man had a glass pipe in one of his pockets. Bates objected to further search and was informed that a more intensive one would be performed at the jail.

En route to the jail, Bigler thought he heard glass breaking in the back seat of the patrol car. He pulled over and discovered fragments of a glass pipe. Bates had been handcuffed during the ride to the jail.

A field test on a white powdery substance came back positive for methamphetamine.

In addition to a charge of driving while suspended, Bates faces charges of unlawful possession of methamphetamine and tampering with evidence.
