MHS business leaders bring home trophies

McNary High School took 30 students to the FBLA State Conference in Portland April 6-8.

Seniors Abigail Smith and Jordan Epping won their individual events, banking and finance, and entrepreneurship, respectively.

Junior Ryan Thompson placed third in banking and finance while senior Kolby Barker finished fifth in entrepreneurship. Epping also took third in personal finance and joined Barker to place fourth in team entrepreneurship.

Smith competed in three events as well, finishing fifth in individual accounting II and fifth in team banking and finance with senior Suni Payne and junior Raelen Daniel.

Senior Megan Schneider placed second in global business. Sam Hernandez took fourth in economics. Josiah Gilbert, Marc Baiza and Hakam Nagra finished fourth in sports and entertainment management.

The top four in each event received an invite to the FBLA national conference in Anaheim, Calif. June 26-July 3.

McNary FBLA is advised by business teacher Brad Lomax.

when Reyes was dropped off.

Keizer police officials are currently in talks with the city council and city staff about adding five new officers. One of the new hires would be assigned to the night shift. This is the second time in recent weeks that a lack of coverage has hobbled KPD's response to incoming calls.
