Roadrunner Medical Transport
www.RoadRunnerTransport.net • 503-989-5151

Getting to a medical appointment can be a real hassle, especially if you cannot drive, for whatever reason. Medical appointments are vitally important; Keith and Chris Relf understand that very well. Earlier this year the couple began Roadrunner Transport LLC, a non-emergency transportation business. Their signature service is providing ambulatory and wheelchair-bound clients transportation to and from their appointments. They also provide service for people not requiring a wheelchair or a walker, but who may need a little extra help getting checked into their appointment, or getting in and out of the transport van. A bonus of using Roadrunner Transport LLC is there is no requirement for a 24-hour notice. Transport is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Call them when you need them. Medical appointments are not the only reason to call Roadrunner Transport. They are also available to help get their customers to graduations, weddings, funerals and other life events. The first five miles of any trip is free. "We strive to have the same driver pick you up that dropped you off; you won't be forgotten," said Keith Relf. "Our drivers are friendly and reliable. Customer service is our priority. Let's get mobile again." When you need help getting to a non-emergency medical appointment and you need help or can't get there yourself, call Roadrunner Transport LLC at 503-989-5151. Visit them at roadrunnertransport.net.
