In the Volcano eighth, Kirby walked, went to second on a Manuel Geraldo, and scored as Junior Amion singled to right center.

John Timmons pitched the eighth and ninth for the Volcanoes. In the ninth, Kwon hit a two-out single to right, reached second on a passed ball by Rene Melendez, and scored on a single to center by Gonzalez. That meant extra innings.

Kendry Melo pitched the 10th and 11th for Salem-Keizer and was the only Volcano pitcher who did not give up a run. With Nick Deeg on the mound in the 12th, the Emeralds scored the final run of the game. Pinch hitter Jhonny Bethencourt led off with a triple to right. Payne brought him home with a sacrifice fly to right.

Michael Knighton, who had pitched the 10th and 11th, became the winning pitcher with a 1-1 record. Luis Aquino had his second save. Deeg's loss put him at 0-1.

"The guys have got to swing at more strikes," Volcanoes manager Jobert said. "All pitchers need to throw more strikes. We're walking too many batters."

Kirby commented, "We've just got to finish more games."

Melo said through an interpreter, Parra, that he had been working on his slider. Asked how he thought pitchers should improve, he said they needed to release pitches out in front.

Wednesday, June 21: Volcanoes 5, Hillsboro 3 (13 innings)

They showed the day before that they could be tough, and in the second game of the Hillsboro road series the Volcanoes were tough enough to win.

The Hops actually led 2-1 after the first inning, but Salem-Keizer scored once in the fourth and once in the fifth and led until Hillsboro scored once in the ninth. In the 13th, the Volcanoes added two and kept their hosts scoreless.

Malique Ziegler, who came out of the game batting .370, led off the Volcano first with a triple, one of two the visitors hit, and scored as Kevin Rivera grounded out.

In the 13th, Rivera hit a one-out single and scored on a triple by Juan Rodriguez. Ryan Kirby singled Rodriguez home.

Volcano starter Stetson Woods allowed two runs in his six innings but had six strikeouts. John Timmins, the fourth Salem-Keizer reliever, got the win.

Thursday, June 22: Volcanoes 8, Hillsboro 6
Salem-Keizer won the series at Hillsboro by starting its first winning streak of the season.

The Volcanoes have been known for late-inning woes, and the Hops scored all six of their runs in the seventh after the visitors scored all eight of theirs.

The biggest inning for the Volcanoes was the four-run seventh. Mikey Edie hit a one-out single, moved to second and third on singles by Malique Ziegler and Juan Rodriguez. An error by shortstop Yan Sanchez scored all three and put Ryan Kirby on first base. Manuel Geraldo doubled Kirby home.

Four hits, three walks, and a force out provided the Hops' runs.

Heath Slotton, who relieved starter Jose Marte, was the winning pitcher at 1-0. Kendry Melo had his first save. Starter Mitchell Aker was the losing pitcher.

Friday, June 23:
Eugene 15, Volcanoes 5
A depleted bullpen that had two non-pitchers on the mound did not keep the host Emeralds from whipping the Volcanoes by 10 runs.

Eugene scored five runs in the first inning, and the score was tied at 5-5 in the third, but thereafter it was all Emeralds. Zach Davis and Tyler Payne hit home runs, and Payne and Jose Gonzalez drove in four runs each. Volcano starter Sidney Duprey left the game after two-thirds of an inning, and Hengerber Medina, the first reliever, took the loss at 1-1.

Matt Pope was the next on the mound, with infielder AJ Ramirez pitching the eighth and catcher Rene Melendez the ninth.

Manuel Geraldo had three hits and Malique Ziegler and Juan Rodriguez two apiece for Salem-Keizer.

Elvis Diaz, the first of three Eugene relievers, was the winning pitcher at 1-1.

Sunday, June 25:
Eugene 7, Volcanoes 4
A 3-0 Salem-Keizer lead at the end of the fourth inning turned into a series sweep for the visiting Emeralds.

In the bottom of the fourth, a leadoff double by Malique Ziegler was followed by Junior Amion's first home run of the season. Then Manuel Geraldo homered.

The Volcanoes were ahead 3-1 in the bottom of the fifth, but Eugene scored three runs each in the sixth and seventh. Joe Martarano and Kwan-Min Kwong homered for Eugene in the sixth.

Heath Slotton, who relieved starter Alejandro De La Rosa after five innings, was the losing pitcher with a 1-1 record. Matt Swarmer, Eugene's starter, was the winning pitcher at 1-0, and Jhon Romero got his first save.

Monday, June 26:
Boise 8, Volcanoes 2
It was a rough start for this Salem-Keizer road series, with the Hawks scoring five times before the Volcanoes got on the board.

The first Volcano run was Ryan Kirby's first home run of the season in the sixth inning. The second came in the ninth, after Dylan Manwaring reached first base on catcher's interference. Pitcher George Thanopoulos threw the ball into right field on a pickoff attempt, and right fielder Aubrey McCarty made another wild throw, letting Manwaring score.

Boise outhit Salem-Keizer 10-6, with Will Haynie getting a single, double, and triple. McCarty also had three hits. Manwaring was the only Volcano with two hits.

Starter John Valek was the winning pitcher. Alex Bostic, who started for the Volcanoes, took the loss.

Tuesday, June 27:
Volcanoes 9, Boise 1
This time, the Volcanoes stayed tough in the late innings and evened the series.

It was a team effort, with Salem-Keizer scoring three runs in the second inning, two in the third, and four in the eighth. Malique Ziegler had three hits, Gustavo Cabrera batted in three runs, and all three Volcano pitchers performed impressively.

Starter Stetson Woods allowed four hits and had four strikeouts in his five innings to get the win with a 1-0 record. Kendry Melo pitched the next two innings and struck out six. Matt Pope pitched the ninth and fanned two.

The Hawks' lone run came in the fifth, when Sam Tidback led off with a home run. Cabrera homered in the second with Byron Murray on first base.

The Volcanoes' eighth-inning runs came on three hits, two walks, three stolen bases, and a ground out.

"He embodies what it really means to be a good sport, putting others above himself, and always showing respect to everyone."

Coach Josh DeVos credited Carter Hawley for working hard at every practice, helping with cleanup, and staying positive with other players.

"Isaac joined our team late, but jumped right in with a positive attitude," Coach Dean Prather said of Isaac Mallory. "Even after getting hit with the ball during his first two games, he hopped back in the box with a smile."

Other players received accolades from fellow team members, including Bradley Fryman, who agreed he "never complains, never quits, and often encourages his teammates and players from other teams." And Ben DeVos was credited with a positive attitude that greatly impacted his fellow teammates.

Each nominee will receive a glass trophy on Sunday, June 25 at the Keizer Little League field. KYSA aims to provide a wholesome environment for youth to participate in baseball activities, and to develop in the youth a sense of good sportsmanship through a competitive spirit, Lane said.

"We strive to provide opportunities for personal growth and development of youth activities while also reinforcing positive influences, self-confidence and self-esteem," Lane said.
