

Keizer man celebrates 100th birthday

By DEREK WILEY
Of the Keizertimes

Frank Moore celebrated his 100th birthday on Monday, June 26 with family in Keizer.

Moore was born in McMinnville and grew up in Salem.

After serving in World War II, he worked for the Department of Transportation, helping map and then inspect roads.

Moore made his first bike and car from parts in a junk yard. He enjoyed traveling and often talks about his trip to Israel.

He moved to Keizer 20 years ago and has been married to Toini for 16 years.

Moore has one daughter, three grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

The family celebrated with presents and cake.

Frank Moore blows out the candles on his 100th birthday cake Monday, June 26 in Keizer. Moore celebrated with his growing family, that includes wife Toini, a daughter, three grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.
