

Volcanoes win 4 of 5 at Everett

By HERB SWETT
Of the Keizertimes

The Volcanoes won a see-saw game at Everett 9-7 Friday, July 7 for a 2-0 lead in the five-game road series.

Ryan Kirby was the hero with his second successive great hitting night, putting Salem-Keizer ahead with a two-run homer in the ninth inning. Jason Bahr made his best pitching performance so far, striking out three in his two innings and getting the win for a 1-1 record.

The first Volcano run came in the first. Malique Ziegler led off with a double to left field, went to third base as Logan Baldwin grounded out, and scored on a ground out by Bryce Johnson.

Everett responded with two runs in the bottom of the inning. Chris Torres walked, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch by starter Stetson Woods, and scored on Evan White's single to center. Joseph Rosa, who had followed Torres to the plate and walked, moved up on the wild pitch and White's single, and scored on Johnny Adams' single to left.

Orlando Garcia led off the third with a home run to right center, tying the score.

In the Volcano fourth, Jose Santiago relieved starter Randy Bell. Michael Sexton walked and went to second on a single to left by Manuel Geraldo.

A balk moved the runners up. Dalton Combs doubled to right, driving in both baserunners. A wild pitch moved Combs to second, and he scored on a sacrifice fly to right by Garcia. Salem-Keizer had a 5-2 lead.

The Volcanoes added a run in the fifth. Bryce Johnson hit an infield single, reached second on Kirby's single to right, moved to third on an error by right fielder Austin Grebeck, and scored as Michael Sexton singled to right.

In the sixth, the AquaSox narrowed the Volcano lead by two runs. Eugene Helder reached on an error by center fielder Ziegler and moved to second. With Juan Camacho batting, Johnny Adams' single to left moved Helder to third, but Adams was caught trying to steal second. Camacho walked and moved to second as an infield single by Aaron Stroosma sent Helder home. A single to left by Brayan Hernandez loaded the bases. Tyler Schimpf relieved Woods, and a walk to Austin Grebeck scored Camacho.

Everett went ahead by a run in the seventh. Rosa walked, went to second on a wild pitch and third on a ground out, and scored on Helder's sacrifice fly to right. Adams reached on a throwing error by Kirby, and Camacho homered to right center.

David Hesslink relieved Santiago to start the Volcano eighth and allowed two singles and a force out but kept Salem-Keizer from scoring.

Garcia led off the Volcano ninth with a single to left. Ziegler laid down a sacrifice bunt, and a throwing error by third baseman Helder put Garcia on third and Ziegler on first. Logan Baldwin grounded into a force out, driving in Garcia.

Kirby hit his homer to right center, and the Volcanoes were up by two. Bahr put the AquaSox down in order in the bottom of the ninth.

The Volcanoes defeated Everett 9-5 on Thursday, July 6, 10-8 on Saturday, July 8 and 7-6 on Sunday, July 9 for their fourth win in a row.

Everett avoided the sweep by winning 9-5 on Monday, July 10.
